WHEELER TO RUN WITH SENATOR LA FOLLETTE

MONTANAN IS SELECTED FOR SECOND PLACE

Yields to Pleadings to be Candidate After He Refused
Place Yesterday

COMMITTEE URGED

LaFollette Added His Special
Pleadings to the Montana
Senator

Washington, July 19.—Senator
Burton K. Wheeler of Montana,
Democratic proponent of the Senate Daugherty committee, today
announced his acceptance of second
place on the independent presidential ticket headed by Senator Robert M. LaFollette.

Although he had previously declared he would not accept such a designation Mr. Wheeler yielded
and reversed his decision after he had been urged to do so by Senator
LaFollette and by several of his
principal advisers.

A special committee from the
group of LaFollette followers in conference here called on the Montana Senator yesterday and formally tendered him the endorsement of the conference for the vice-presidency. He promised to reply today and did so soon after
he reached his office.

ISSUES STATEMENT

Washington, July 19.—Senator
Burton K. Wheeler of Montana,
who was national distinction by his conduct of the Senate Daugherty investigation, accepted the vice-presidential nomination on the Senator LaFollette Independent ticket
today and immediately began his campaign with a broadside
against the political affiliations
of Calvin Coolidge and John W.
Davis.

"I am a Democrat, but not a Wall Street Democrat," he said in
a letter formally accepting the
nomination tendered him by the group of LaFollette leaders in conference here.

"The Democratic party," he continued, "has wantonly abandoned
an opportunity for great public
service and both it and the Republican party have ignored the
call of the unorganized millions
who are the victims of the present
economic disorders."

Wheeler's statement
Senator Wheeler's acceptance and
his denunciation of the two old
line parties were embodied in a letter to William H. Johnston at the machinists' union heading a committee sent to him by the conference of LaFollette leaders to receive his reply to the formal tender

KEEP WAIST LINE DOWN

Must Do It To Be President.
Says Copeland

New York, July 19.—"If you want to be president of the United States don't get fat."

United States Senator Royal
Copeland of New York gave this advice today to 3,000 Boy Scouts
in camp on Bear Mountain.

"Keep your waist line down,"
he told the Scouts, "for the day of
the statesman with the 50-inch
girdle is gone."

"The reason is simple," he continued. "The public now knows that
men are not born fat and that
obesity is due to being too indifferent to personal welfare to keep the waist line down. Logically, voters
think that if a man is too lazy to care for his own health, he will be too lazy to care for the public business. So if you would roll up
a big vote keep down your waist
line."

CAMPAIGN ON RATS OPENED

Minot, N. D., July 19.—Plans for
an aggressive campaign against rats,
in which the bureau of biological surveys of the United States department of agriculture will co-operate
with the city's health department and citizens of Minot, were announced recently by the Minot Association of Commerce which has been investigating rat infestations in the city
during the past few weeks with a view to bringing about the type of extermination campaign that will give permanent relief. A survey is to be made of the entire city throughout July 24, 25 and 26, and the actual work of ridding the city of rodents
will be launched as soon as the survey is completed with R. Scott
Zimmerman, in charge of the biological survey work in North Dakota,
taking personal charge.

FARMERS FIND MUCH FAVOR IN PLAN FOR FAIR

Many at Old Settlers Picnic
at Arena Expressed Themselves For It

TO 'DEVELOP' COUNTY

(Special to the Tribune)

Arena, N. D., July 19.—Farmers in northern Burleigh county favor a corn and stock show and fair. This
was evidenced by interviews given a Tribune representative by representative farmers in attendance at the Old Settlers picnic in Arena grove
yesterday afternoon.

There is some variance as to the
details only, all agree that to promote the interests of the county
generally there should be an agricultural exposition.

Interviews with representative
farmers follow:

Carl Shopp of Arena township—
"We are interested in having a corn
and stock show in Burleigh. I have been raising corn for the last three years, and believe that its development in the county is worth while."
Henry McKlusky of Wing—"A corn
and stock show is one of the things
that Burleigh county is especially in need of."

Henry Olson, Christiania township—"A fair or stock show for this county would prove a good thing in getting the farmers more interested
in diversification."

John Birkeland of Driscoll—"Yes,
I am entirely for having a corn and
stock show in this county. We should have had one before."

H. N. Nelson, Driscoll—"In the interest of progress it would seem
necessary that we have a fair or
stock show in Burleigh."

George Anderson, Wing—"We
ought to have a general fair, but
not until next year. It is an excellent plan to stimulate interest
in efficient methods of farming, and
everybody likes a fair."

Christ Judson of Lein township—
"The last of September or the first part of October would be a good
time to have a fair or better, a corn
and stock show."

George Rantz of Wilton—"I think
a corn and stock show would be a good thing for the county, and I believe that the farmers but my way would be strongly in favor of
having one."

W. E. Nichols of Moffit—"Bur-
leigh county could do nothing better than have a corn and stock show.
If the people get behind it there
is no doubt that it would be a success."

Ole Spilde of Driscoll—"I strongly favor having a fair in Burleigh.
As a rule you'll find the farmers
backing that kind of a movement."

SHAVEN HEADS DEM CAMPAIGN

New York, July 19.—Selection of Clem L. Shaver of West Virginia
as chairman of the Democratic national committee, was announced by John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee.
Announcement was also made that
Mr. Davis will be formally notified
of his nomination at Clarksburg, W.
Va., on Aug. 11.

U. S. OFFICIAL, MISTAKEN, IS SLAIN BY MOB

Robert Imbrie Victim of Mob

ANOTHER INJURED

Second American So Badly
Beaten by Crowd That He Cannot Make Statement

Washington, July 19.—A message received today by the state
department from American minister Joseph Kornfeld at Teheran,
Persia, said that Vice-Consul Robert Imbrie died from shock at 3
o'clock yesterday afternoon after having been brutally kicked and
beaten by a mob.

The Vice-Consul and Melin Seymour, also an American, had stopped their carriage to watch a religious demonstration in the city,
the message said, and were rushed
by the mob who mistook them for
members of a sect known as the Bahais, against which the demonstration was directed.

Seymour's condition was said to
be so serious as a result of the
beating he received that he had
been unable to make any statement.

DEATH CONFIRMED

London, July 19.—British officials today confirmed the death of Major Robert Imbrie, American
vice-consul in charge at Teheran,
Persia, who it is stated, was attacked by a fanatical mob yesterday morning while photographing
a public fountain in company with American named Seymour.

Major Imbrie died during the
afternoon while Seymour, whom it
was impossible to identify further,
was taken to a hospital in a critical condition.

LUMBER MEN NOT GUILTY

Government Loses Fraud
Case Against Them

Washington, July 19.—A jury in the District of Columbia supreme court today acquitted John L.
Phillips, of Georgia; his brother,
Charles Phillips, Jr., of Atlanta;
Frank T. Sullivan of Buffalo and Charles S. Shotwell of Indianapolis,
of charges of conspiracy in the sale
of government surplus lumber.

During the trial, which began in weeks ago, directed verdicts of acquittal were awarded in the case of
two other defendants named in the indictment returned in the government prosecution and charging conspiracy to defraud the government
in the sale of surplus lumber from
army cantonments built during the
war. The two are John Stephens,
of Jacksonville, Fla., and Ernest F.
Morse, of Cincinnati.

Of the other four named in the indictment, George M. Chambers, a government inspector, has since died,
and Gus Elitzer and M. A. Towart,
Jr., of Pensacola, Fla., and Roland
Perry, of Washington, D. C., have not yet been brought to trial. Doubt
was expressed in court circles whether
the latter trio ever would be tried on the indictment.

The indictment, in which the 19
men were charged with conspiracy
to defraud the government out of
more than $1,000,000 in lumber sales,
was returned by a special federal
grand jury here on July 17, 1922.

Weather Report

For 24 hours ending at noon:
Temperature at 7 a. m. 58
Highest yesterday 73
Lowest yesterday 60
Lowest last night 55
Precipitation .26
Highest wind velocity 20

For Bismarck and vicinity: Unsettled tonight and Sunday, probably local thunderstorms. Not much change in temperature.

For North Dakota: Unsettled tonight and Sunday, probably local thunderstorms. Not much change in temperature.

General Weather Conditions
The pressure is low over the northeastern Rocky Mountain region and precipitation occurred
from the middle and upper Mississippi Valley northwestward
over the northern Rocky Mountain region. Heavy precipitation occurred throughout South Dakota
while moderate precipitation fell over North Dakota. The weather is generally fair over the Great Lakes region and over the Southern Plains States, but cool weather prevails from the Great Lakes region westward to the Pacific Coast.

Dr. W. E. Hocking, Secretary of the State Board of Dental Examiners announces that the following men were granted a license: R. L. Bork, Fargo, N. D.; L. W. Ender, Rice Lake, Wis.; J. T. Hanson, Minot, N. D.; Edward Hanson, McVine, N. D.; John O'Keefe, Wishek, N. D.; Wm. M. Robbins, Cavalier, N. D.; Reuben Rutten, Devils Lake, N. D.; J. L. Wid-
meyer, Rolla, N. D., and Harry Allen Young, Minneapolis.

Plants have been found that can be made to photograph themselves.

AGREEMENT ON TWO POINTS OF SPEED PARLEY

Investors in Loan to Germany
Would be Insured of Priority of Payment

TO PRESERVE RIGHTS

All Signers of the Versailles
Treaty Would be Guaranteed Rights

London, July 19.—The committee
of the inter-allied conference in charge of sanctioning the event of Germany's default under the Dawes
scheme today unanimously agreed
to insure investors in the loan to Germany of priority in all German
resources in the event of Germany's default.

The committee also unanimously
agreed to preserve all the rights
enjoyed by the nations which signed
the Versailles treaty.

These two issues stood in the
way of negotiations of the conference yesterday and the agreement
on them, it is believed, will expedite the work of achieving a general agreement on the Dawes
plan.

Concession to France
The agreement on the preservation of the rights of the signatories to the Versailles treaty was a concession to Premier Herriot of France and in effect it preserves
the right for separate action on the part of France.

It enabled M. Herriot to live up to the pledge he gave to former Premier Poincare that all the French rights under the treaty will
be maintained.

After committee number one in which the debated issues have been
causing delay had reached an agreement the French premier authorized a statement that he was highly pleased with the progress
of the conference.

COOLIDGE IS SATISFIED

Washington, July 19.—Progress to
date of the inter-allied conference
at London is regarded as satisfactory by President Coolidge.

The president has received no official reports on the meetings of
the allied premiers but indicated
yesterday he had been following
closely the accounts of the proceedings as published in American newspapers.

The progress as reported is regarded by Mr. Coolidge as fulfilling the expectation which had
arisen in the minds of officials
here who knew of the leaders to be present at the London conference
and of the plans that were to be considered.

The American government has not been apprised of any move to award selection of Owen D. Young
of New York as fiscal agent of the reparations commission, but it was stated on highest authority yesterday that the American government would be pleased if Mr.
Young were offered the place and
accepted it.

U. S. FLIERS ARE FETED

Leave London to Continue
Work on Planes

London, July 19.—(By the A. P.)—
The three members of the American
around the world flying expedition
who were guests of honor at the dinner given by the Royal Aerial
Club last night—Lieut. Lowell Smith,
Lieut. Leigh Wade and Lieut. Leslie P.
Arnold—returned to the present
headquarters of the flying party at Brough today to continue work on
the three airplanes which is progressing satisfactorily.

They were anxious to get away
from the distractions of London and
get as much rest as possible before
they hop off for Kirkwall after the
machines have been refitted next Tuesday or Wednesday, ready for the
long trans-Atlantic leg of their flight.

JUVENILE BAND WILL GIVE CONCERT

The Bismarck Juvenile
Band, directed by L. C. Sorlien,
will give a concert tonight on the courthouse
grounds, beginning at 7:30
p. m. The band will be located on the southwestern
corner of the grounds, opposite the Methodist church, according to Mr. Sorlien.

This will be the first appearance in outdoor concerts
by the Juvenile Band, which
has been diligently practicing
for the program.

LIGHT TO HEAVY RAIN REPORTED ON BURLEIGH COUNTY'S FARMS

Southeastern Part of the County Now Has Plenty of Moisture
To Insure Maturity of Fine Grain Crops, Farmers
Report to The Tribune Over the Telephone

Light to heavy showers fell in Burleigh county last night, reports to
The Tribune indicating that practically all of the county was benefitted
by rain. In Bismarck there was a heavy downpour for a time. The weather bureau reported a fall of
.26 of an inch last night, which, combined with showers the two previous
nights, gave Bismarck a half inch
of rain in three days. There was likelihood of additional showers tonight.

The rain in Burleigh county was heavier southeast of the city than
north, it appeared. Southeast of here
several farmers reported to The Tribune over the telephone that they
now have plenty of moisture to mature a fine crop of wheat and other small grains. They do not fear any further damage except hail.

The Hoover farm, four miles west
of Moffit and about 85 miles southeast of here, reported a fine rain
last night and rain the previous

night, adding that the rain penet-
rated to where the ground already was
moist, and giving plenty of moisture to mature the crops. The Robert
Boyd farm 16 miles east and south
reported a splendid rain, doing an immense amount of good.

A rain of about one-fourth of an
inch was reported at the Engdahl
farm 18 miles northeast of here. Six miles east of Bismarck it rained between 10 and 11 last night and
again between 6 and 7 this morning. The Edward Lundquist farm,
30 miles northeast, reported that it
rained there enough to be of great
help for some days.

The Ole Sather farm 12 miles northeast reported "a dandy rain" as did the Moyner farm 12 miles northeast.

It rained all along the Northern Prairie east to the Burleigh county line. Regan reported a light shower
which did not amount to much, as did Tuttle, further east in Kidder
county.

FORECAST FOR NEXT WEEK

Washington, July 19.—Weather
outlook for the week beginning Monday: Upper Mississippi Valley,
scattered showers and thunderstorms at beginning, middle and
near end; temperatures normal or above.

LOEB SAID TO ADMIT HE WAS ACTUAL SLAYER

Additional Confession Is Said
To Have Been Obtained
in Frank Case

Chicago, July 19.—Richard
Loeb, awaiting trial with Nathan
Leopold on charges of kidnapping
and slaying Robert Franks, has admitted that it was he who actually struck the blow killing their victim, the Chicago Herald and Examiner said today. The blow
was struck with a cold chisel wrapped with tape and Leopold drove
the automobile in which they were riding at the time.

The youths, millionaires' sons
and university graduate students,
in their first confession told
identically the same story with
the exception that each accused
the other of striking the fatal blow.
Loeb, the newspaper said, made
the additional confession after
learning that the penalty was the
same regardless of which was the actual slayer.

U. S. SWIMMERS AGAIN VICTORS

Olympic Swimming Pool, Les Tour-
elles, France, July 19.—American Olympic men and women swimmers
today again swept everything before
them, every American entrant in the diving and swimming events disputed today, reaching the finals or semifinals.

GIVE UP 7 AS DROWNED

Little Hope For Children
Adrift in Canoe

Fairfield, Conn., July 19.—Search
of Long Island Sound and the shore
for seven children who put out in
a canoe from St. Mary's-by-the-Sea
Thursday afternoon so far has come
to naught.

Hope was abandoned and three residents were asked to be on the lookout for the bodies.

The canoe in which the children
set out on the rough sea was recovered yesterday afternoon. Five boys
and two girls, whose ages range from eight to fifteen years, went on an outing in the canoe. None could swim.

EIGHT KILLED IN RIOTING

Lisbon, Portugal, July 19.—Eight
persons were killed and seven wounded last night in a shooting affray between soldiers of the Republican
guard and police.

MINOT WOMAN BURNED
Minot, N. D., July 19.—Converted
into a human torch when gasoline
with which she was cleaning clothes
ignited, Mrs. M. Lemon of Minot
today was seriously burned. Her condition is considered grave.

HUNDREDS AT OLD SETTLERS ARENA PICNIC

Entire Communities Join in Fine Celebration Held at The Arena Grove

BIG SPORTS PROGRAM

Airplane Rides, Baseball Game, Dancing Are Among Features on Program

(Special to The Tribune)

Arena, N. D., July 19.—A picnic attended by people from miles around was the Old Settlers picnic held in the Arena Grove, near Arena yesterday with from 400 to 500 of the farmers, their families,
and nearby towns people present.
The Grove furnishes a good place
for the enjoyment of picnic lunches, and a large number of people arrived before noon, bringing their cans with them, and spending the day at the grounds.

Besides the airplane rides taken by a large group, the feature of the afternoon program was the baseball game, between Wing and Driscoll resulting in a 7 to 5 score in favor of Wing. It was a fast game of ball, the two nines being quite evenly matched, although Wing had slightly the edge on Driscoll throughout, setting a fast pace for their opponents.

"Sandy," the horse belonging to V. P. Heaton of Wing, won the horse race, in which there were three entries, and for which there was a $25 purse. He was ridden by Leslie Hyde of Driscoll. The other two entries both belonged to Mike Hyde, with his daughter, Katherine Hyde riding one, and Ruben Stohler, the other.

A tug-of-war with two sides chosen on the spot, was won by the side which had the most baseball players, for the spikes in their shoes gave them something of an advantage over the other side.

Dancing in the pavilion in the late afternoon and throughout the evening attracted a large number of couples, live peppy music being provided by Dutton's orchestra.

The high wind in the afternoon
put a little damper on the airplane rides, given by Harry Potter in his new standard machine, but the wind died down in the evening, and the plane was kept busy taking care of the would be passengers.

SOCIETY TO MEET IN CITY

North Dakota Branch of Evangelical Church Organization Comes

The North Dakota branch of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church will hold its annual convention in Bismarck August 7 to 10.

The chief convention speaker will be Rev. A. Giuliani of the Italian Mission, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The convention is expected to bring a large number of church workers to the city, headed by Mrs. W. C. Menges of Grand Forks, president.

The opening service will be held on Thursday, August 7, at the Evangelical church here, with Rev.
C. F. Struts extending the welcome.
The convention will close the following Sunday.

There was a light rain at Wishek,
a good rain at Kulm; and no rain
at Oakes, Fullerton, Fredonia and Lehr.

It rained at some points this morning, so that it was probable
the rain would cover more of southeastern North Dakota today.

Washburn reported an exceptionally heavy rain, informing Soo line
officials it rained about two inches.

EVERY STATION REPORTS RAIN TO U. S. BUREAU

Ranges From Light Showers
To Heavy Rains in Most
Parts of the State

HEAVY AT SOME POINTS

Washburn Reports Nearly
Two Inches of Rain—Heavy
Rain at Minot and North

Every one of the 17 weather stations in North Dakota and one at Moorhead, Minnesota, reporting to the Bismarck weather bureau for the
corn and wheat region report, today
reported rain.

The rain varied from light showers
to three quarters of an inch of rain
at Bottineau and more than half an
inch at Minot. Both Dunn Center
and Dickinson, the two sections west
of the Missouri River in southwestern North Dakota, reported rain.

With the forecast being for probable local thunderstorms again tonight, and with showers at various points the previous night, it is indicated by the weather reports that
of North Dakota has received moisture which insures a fine grain
crop from this standpoint. Some points report that the crop is entirely safe from the standpoint of
moisture, especially the early sown
wheat, and bumper crops are virtually assured in many sections, while others now have no complaint of lack
of rain.

Bismarck, Dunn Center and Dickin-
son reported from one-fifth to one-quarter of an inch of rain, while Napoleon, where rain was reported
the night previous, said there was
one-fifth of an inch of rain.

The heaviest rain reported by private sources was from Washburn, the Soo line being informed it rained
about two inches there. The night previous Linton reported 1.55 inches
of rain, which put Emmons county
in the clear as far as moisture is concerned.

While it already had been reported
that early sown crops in most localities were not needing moisture, the rain last night caused a great wave
of optimism among those familiar with conditions over the western half
of the state.

The weather bureau's report showed rain at the following points:
Amenia .22; Bismarck .26; Bottineau
.71; Devils Lake .26; Dickinson .20;
Dunn Center .22; Ellendale .31; Pes-senden .26; Grand Forks .03; Lang-
don .06; Larimore .05; Lisbon .18;
Minot .87; Napoleon .20; Pembina
.10; Williston .26; Moorhead, Minn.,
.06.

Mandan reported a rainfall of
.45 of an inch, considerably more
than Bismarck.

IN SOUTHWEST N. D.

A private telephone message received in Bismarck this morning
said that it began raining about 5
p. m. yesterday at Hettinger, Adams
county, and continued to rain all
night. Apparently, the report said,
all of Adams and Bowman counties,
and other places in southwestern
North Dakota, received an exceptionally heavy rain. Crops had not been suffering in that territory, but
the rain last night was said to insure a bumper crop throughout two counties or more.

N. P. REPORT

The Northern Pacific Railroad
reported rain which lasted from 30 minutes to an hour and thirty
minutes from Mandan to Jamestown
on the main line. Medina and Windsor reported fine rains. The reports were to the effect that immense good was done by the rain
through eastern Burleigh and in Kidder and Stutsman counties.

SOO LINE REPORT

The Soo line's report follows:
Light to heavy rain at Beldwin and Wilton. From Winton to Drake a very heavy rain with the exception
of Russo, in northwestern McLean
county, where it did not rain. From Max to Parshall a heavy rain; light
to fair, Parshall to Sanish.

WIDE SPREAD RAINS AID N. D. CROPS WHEELER TO RUN WITH SENATOR LA FOLLETTE

MONTANAN IS SELECTED FOR SECOND PLACE

Yields to Pleadings to be Candidate After He Refused
Place Yesterday

COMMITTEE URGED

LaFollette Added His Special
Pleadings to the Montana
Senator

Washington, July 19.—Senator
Burton K. Wheeler of Montana,
Democratic proponent of the Senate Daugherty committee, today
announced his acceptance of second
place on the independent presidential ticket headed by Senator Robert M. LaFollette.

Although he had previously declared he would not accept such a
designation Mr. Wheeler yielded
and reversed his decision after he
had been urged to do so by Senator
LaFollette and by several of his
principal advisers.

A special committee from the
group of LaFollette followers in conference were called on the Montana Senator yesterday and formally tendered him the endorse-
ment of the conference for the Vice-Presidency. He promised to reply today and did so soon after
he reached his office.

Washington, July 19.—Senator
Burton K. Wheeler of Montana,
who won national distinction by his conduct of the Senate Daugherty investigation, accepted the Vice-Presidential nomination of the Senator LaFollette Independent ticket today and immediately began his campaign with a broadside
of Calvin Coolidge and John W.
Davis.

"I am a Democrat, but not a Wall Street Democrat," he said in
a letter formally accepting the
nomination tendered him by the
group of LaFollette leaders in conference here.

"The Democratic party," he continued, "has wittingly abandoned
an opportunity for great public
service and both it and the Republican party have ignored the
call of the unorganized millions
who are the victims of the present
economic disorders."

Senator Wheeler's acceptance and
his denunciation of the two old
line parties were embodied in a letter to William H. Johnston at
the machinists' union heading a
committee sent to him by the conference of LaFollette leaders to o-
ceive his reply to the formal tender.

Must Do It To Be President,
Says Copeland

New York, July 19.—"If you want to be president of the United States don't get fat."

United States Senator Royal
Copeland of New York gave this
advice today to 3,000 Boy Scouts
in camp on Bear Mountain.

"Keep your waist line down,"
he told the Scouts, "for the day of
the statesman with the 50-inch
girdle is gone."

"The reason is simple," he continued. "The public now knows that
men are not born fat and that
obesity is due to being too indifferent to personal welfare to keep the
waist line down. Logically, voters
think that if a man is too lazy to care for his own health, he will be too lazy to care for the public
business. So if you would roll up
line."

Minot, N. D., July 19.—Plans for
an aggressive campaign against rats,
in which the bureau of biological survey of the United States department of agriculture will co-operate
with the city's health department and
citizens of Minot, were announced recently by the Minot Association of Commerce which has been investigating rat infestations in the city
during the past few weeks with a
view to bringing about the type of
extermination campaign that will
give permanent relief. A survey is
to be made of the entire city through assistance of the Boy Scouts on July 24, 25 and 26, and the actual
work of ridding the city of rodents
will be launched as soon as the survey is completed with R. Scott
Zimmerman, in charge of the biological survey, working in North Dakota,
taking personal charge.

TO 'DEVELOP' COUNTY

Arena, N. D., July 19.—Farmers in northern Burleigh county favor a
corn and stock show and fair. This
was evidenced by interviews given a Tribune representative by representative farmers in attendance at the Old Settlers picnic in Arena grove
yesterday afternoon.

There is some variance as to the
details only; all agree that to promote the interests of the county
generally there should be an agricultural exposition.

Interviews with representative
farmers follow:
Carl Shopp of Arena township—
"We are interested in having a corn
and stock show in Burleigh. I have
been raising corn for the last three
years, and believe that its development in the county is worth while."
Henry McKlusky of Wing—"A corn
and stock show is one of the things
that Burleigh county is especially in
need of."

Henry Olson, Christiania town-
ship—"A fair or stock show for this
county would prove a good thing in
getting the farmers more interested
in diversification."

John Birkeland of Driscoll—"Yes,
I am entirely for having a corn and
stock show in this county. We

H. N. Nelson, Driscoll—"In the interest of progress it would seem
necessary that we have a fair or
stock show in Burleigh."

George Anderson, Wing—"We
ought to have a general fair, but
not until next year. It is an excellent plan to stimulate interest
in efficient methods of farming, and
everybody likes a fair."

Christ Judson of Lein township—"The last of September or the first part of October would be a good
time to have a fair or better, a corn
and stock show."

George Rants of Wilton—"I think
a corn and stock show would be a
good thing for the county, and I believe that the farmers out my way would be strongly in favor of
having one."

W. E. Nichols of Moffit—"Bur-
leigh county could do nothing better than have a corn and stock show.
If the people get behind it there
is no doubt that it would be a success."

Ole Spilde of Driscoll—"I strongly favor having a fair in Burleigh.
As a rule you'll find the farmers

Clem L. Shaver of West Virginia
as chairman of the Democratic national committee, was announced
by John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee.

Announcement was also made that
Mr. Davis will be formally notified
of his nomination at Clarksburg, W.
Va., on Aug. 11.

PETTY THIEVES ARE AT WORK

Hazleton, N. D., July 19.—During the past few weeks petty thieves have been at work in Hazleton and the owners of several automobiles
have reported losses of equipment
from their cars. Last Saturday night
one of our farmers parked his car on Main street and later when he got ready to go home he found that someone had stolen the light bulbs from his car. The thieves had taken off the lenses and laid them down on the ground and after taking the bulbs had left the lenses lying in the road. Another owner reports that some one had stolen a jack and his pliers from his car.

DAIRYING IS ON INCREASE

1,000 Cattle Placed on Northwestern Farms

Minneapolis, July 19.—Nearly 1,000 head of cattle, made available to farmers in one crop section by the $100,000,000 Agricultural Credit corporation of Minneapolis are giving new duties to agriculturists in widely scattered sections of the northwest, according to M. O. Granger, vice-president of the corporation in charge of North Dakota activities and director of the dairy loan division.

Of the other four named in the indictment, George M. Chambers, a
government inspector, has since died,
and Gus Eitzer and M. A. Towart,
Jr., of Pensacola, Fla., and Roland
Perry, of Washington, D. C., have not yet been brought to trial. Doubt
was expressed in court circles whether
the latter two would be tried on the indictment.

The indictment, in which the 10
men were charged with conspiracy
to defraud the government out of
more than $1,000,000 in lumber sales,
was returned by a special federal
grand jury, here on July 17, 1922.

U. S. OFFICIAL MISTAKEN, IS SLAIN BY MOB

Robert Imbrie Victim of Mob
Which Mistakes Him For Religious Opponent

ANOTHER INJURED

Second American So Badly
Beaten by Crowd That He Cannot Make Statement

Washington, July 19.—A message received today by the state
department from American minister Joseph Kornfeld at Teheran,
Persia, said that Vice-Consul Robert Imbrie died from shock at 3
o'clock yesterday afternoon after
having been brutally kicked and
beaten by a mob.

The Vice-Consul and Melin Seymour, also an American, had stopped their carriage to watch a religious demonstration in the city,
the message said, and were rushed
by the mob who mistook them for
members of a sect known as the Bahais, against whom the demonstration was directed.

Seymour's condition was said to
be so serious as a result of the
beating he received that he had
been unable to make any statement.

DEATH CONFIRMED

London, July 19.—British officials today confirmed the death of
Major Robert Imbrie, American
vice-consul in charge at Teheran,
Persia, who it is stated, was attacked by a fanatical mob yester-
day morning while photographing
a public festival in company with American named Seymour.

Major Imbrie died during the
afternoon while Seymour, whom it
was impossible to identify further,
was taken to a hospital in a critical
condition.

LUMBER MEN NOT GUILTY

Government Loses Fraud
Case Against Them

Washington, July 19.—A jury in
the District of Columbia supreme court yesterday acquitted John L.
Phillips, of Georgia; his brother,
Charles Phillips, Jr., of Atlanta;
Frank T. Sullivan of Buffalo and Charles S. Shottwell of Indianapolis,
of charges of conspiracy in the sale
of government surplus lumber.

During the trial, which began 10
weeks ago, directed verdicts of ac-
quittal were awarded in the case of
two other defendants named in the
indictment returned in the government prosecution and charging conspiracy to defraud the government
in the sale of surplus lumber from
army cantonments built during the
war. The two are John Stephens,
of Jacksonville, Fla., and Ernest F.
Morse, of Cincinnati.

Of the other four named in the indictment, George M. Chambers, a
government inspector, has since died,
and Gus Eitzer and M. A. Towart,

Would be Insured of Priority of Payment

Treaty Would be Guaranteed Rights

London, July 19.—The committee
of the inter-allied conference
of sanctioning the event of Germany's default under the Dawes
scheme today unanimously agreed
to insure investors in the loan to Germany of priority in all German
resources in the event of Germany's default.

The committee also unanimously
agreed to preserve all the rights
enjoyed by the nations which signed
the Versailles treaty.

These two issues stood in the
way of negotiations of the conference yesterday and the agreement
on them, it is believed, will ex-
pedite the work of achieving a
general agreement on the Dawes
plan.

Concession to France

The agreement on the preservation of the rights of the signatories of the Versailles treaty was
a concession to Premier Herriot of France and in effect it preserves
the right for separate action on
the part of France.

It enabled M. Herriot to live up
to the pledge he gave to former Premier Poincaré that all the French rights under the treaty will
be maintained.

After committee number one in
which the debated issues have been
causing delay had reached an
agreement the French premier authorized a statement that he was
highly pleased with the progress
of the conference.

COOLIDGE IS SATISFIED

Washington, July 19.—Progress to
date of the interallied conference
at London was satisfactory,
by President Coolidge.

The president has received no official reports on the meetings of
the allied premiers but indicated
yesterday he had been following
closely the accounts of the proceedings as published in American
newspapers.

The progress as reported is regarded by Mr. Coolidge as fulfill-
ing the expectation which had
arisen in the minds of officials
here who knew of the leaders to be
present at the London conference
and of the plans that were to be considered.

The American government has not been apprised of any move to award selection of Owen D. Young
of New York as fiscal agent of the reparation commission, but it was stated on highest authority yester-
day, that the American government would be pleased if Mr.
Young were offered the place and
accepted it.

U. S. FLIERS ARE FETED

Leave London to Continue
Work on Planes

London, July 19. (By the A. P.)—
The three members of the American
around the world flying expedition
who were guests of honor at the
dinner given by the Royal Aerial
Club last night—Lieut. Lowell Smith,
Lieut. Leigh Wade and Lieut. Leslie P.
Arnold—returned to the present
headquarters of the flying party at Brough today to continue work on
the three airplanes which is progressing satisfactorily.

They were anxious to get away
from the distractions of London and
get as much rest as possible before
they hop off for Kirkwall after the
machines have been refitted next Tuesday or Wednesday, ready for the
long trans-Atlantic leg of their flight.

The Bismarck Juvenile
Band, directed by L. C. Sorlien,
will give a concert to-
night on the courthouse
grounds, beginning at 7:30
p. m. The band will be located on the southwestern
corner of the grounds, opposite the Methodist church, according to Mr. Sorlien.

This will be the first appearance in outdoor concerts
by the Juvenile Band, which
has been diligently practicing
for the program.

LIGHT TO HEAVY RAIN REPORTED ON BURLEIGH COUNTY'S FARMS

To Insure Maturity of Fine Grain Crops, Farmers
Report to The Tribune Over the Telephone

Light to heavy showers fell in
Burleigh county last night, reports to
The Tribune indicating that practically all of the county was benefitted
by rain. In Bismarck there was a
heavy downpour for a time. The
weather bureau reported a fall of 25 of an inch last night, which combined with showers the two previous
nights, gave Bismarck a half inch
of rain in three days. There was
likelihood of additional showers tonight.

The rain in Burleigh county was
heavier southeast of the city than
north, it appeared. Southeast of here
several farmers reported to The Tribune over the telephone that they
now have plenty of moisture to mature a fine crop of wheat and other
small grains. They do not fear any
further damage except hail.

The Hoover farm, four miles west
of Moffit and about 85 miles west-
east of here, reported a fine rain
last night and rain the previous
night, adding that the rain penet-
rated to where the ground already was
moist, and giving plenty of moisture to mature the crops. The Robert
Boyd farm 16 miles east and south
reported a splendid rain, doing an
immense amount of good.

A rain of about one-fourth of an
inch was reported at the Engdahl
farm 18 miles northeast of here. Six miles east of Bismarck it rained between 10 and 11 last night and
again between 6 and 7 this morn-
ing. The Edward Lundquist farm,
30 miles northeast, reported that it
rained there enough to be of great
help for some days.

The Ole Sather farm 12 miles north reported "a dandy rain" as did the Moynier farm 12 miles northeast.

It rained all along the Northern Pacific east to the Burleigh county line. Ryan reported a light shower
which did not amount to much, as did Tuttle, farther east in Kidder
county.

Washington, July 19.—Weather
outlook for the week beginning Monday: Upper Mississippi Valley,
scattered showers and thunder-
storms at beginning, middle and
near end; temperatures normal or
above.

LOEB SAID TO ADMIT HE WAS ACTUAL SLAYER

Additional Confession Is Said
To Have Been Obtained
in Frank Case

Chicago, July 19.—Richard
Loeb, awaiting trial with Nathan
Leopold on charges of kidnapping
and slaying Robert Franks, has admitted that it was he who actually struck the blow killing their victim, the Chicago Herald and Examiner said today. The blow
was struck with a cold chisel wrapped with tape and Leopold drove
the automobile in which they were
riding at the time.

The youths, millionaires' sons
and university graduate students,
in their first confession told
identically the same story with
the exception that each accused
the other of striking the fatal blow.
Loeb, the newspaper said, made
the additional confession after
learning that the penalty was the
same regardless of which was the
actual slayer.

U. S. SWIMMERS AGAIN VICTORS

Olympic Swimming Pool, Les Tour-
elles, France, July 19.—America's Olympic men and women swimmers
today again swept everything before
them, every American entrant in the
diving and swimming events disputed
today, reaching the finals or semifinals.

Little Hope For Children
Adrift in Canoe

Fairfield, Conn., July 19.—Search
of Long Island Sound and the shore
for seven children who put out in
a canoe from St. Mary's-by-the-Sea
Thursday afternoon so far has come
to naught.

Hope was abandoned and shore
residents were asked to be on the
lookout for the bodies.

The canoe in which the children
set out on the rough sea was re-
covered yesterday afternoon. Five boys
and two girls, whose ages range from
eight to fifteen years, went on an
swim.

Lisbon, Portugal, July 19.—Eight
persons were killed and seven wounded last night in a shooting affray between soldiers of the Republican
guard and police.

MINOT WOMAN BURNED

Minot, N. D., July 19.—Converted
into a human torch when gasoline
with which she was cleaning clothes
ignited, Mrs. M. Lemons of Minot
today was seriously burned. Her
condition is considered grave.

EVERY STATION REPORTS RAIN TO U. S. BUREAU

Ranges From Light Showers
To Heavy Rains in Most
Parts of the State

Washburn Reports Nearly
Two Inches of Rain—Heavy
Rain at Minot and North

Every one of the 17 weather stations in North Dakota and one at Moorhead, Minnesota, reporting to the Bismarck weather bureau for the
corn and wheat region report, today
reported rain.

The rain varied from light showers
to three quarters of an inch of rain
at Bottineau and more than half an
inch at Minot. Both Dunn Center
and Dickinson, the two sections west
of the Missouri River in south-
western North Dakota, reported rain.

With the forecast being for prob-
able local thunderstorms again tonight, and with showers at various
points the previous night, it is indicated by the weather reports that most of North Dakota has received
moisture which insures a fine grain
crop from this standpoint. Some
points report that the crop is entirely safe from the standpoint of
moisture, especially the early sown
wheat, and bumper crops are virtually assured in many sections, while others now have no complaint of lack
of rain.

Bismarck, Dunn Center and Dickin-
son reported from one-fifth to one-
quarter of an inch of rain, while Napoleon, where rain was reported
the night previous, said there was
one-fifth of an inch of rain.

The heaviest rain reported by private sources was from Washburn, the
Soo line being informed it rained
almost two inches there. The night
previous Linton reported 1.55 inches
of rain, which put Emmons county in the clear as far as moisture is concerned.

While it already had been reported that early sown crops in most localities were not needing moisture, the
rain last night caused a great wave
of optimism among those farmers
with conditions over the western half
of the state.

The weather bureau's report showed rain at the following points:
Amenia .22; Bismarck .26; Bottineau
.21; Devils Lake .26; Dickinson .20;
Dunn Center .22; Ellendale .21; Fossander .35; Grand Forks .03; Lang-
don .06; Larimore .05; Lisbon .18;
Minot .57; Napoleon .20; Pembina
.10; Williston .26; Moorhead, Minn.,
.06.

Mandan reported a rainfall of
.45 of an inch, considerably more
than Bismarck.

IN SOUTHWEST N. D.

A private telephone message received in Bismarck this morning
said that it began raining about 5
p. m. yesterday at Hettinger, Adams
county, and continued to rain all
night. Apparently, the report said,
all of Adams and Bowman counties,
and other places in southwestern
North Dakota, received an exceptionally heavy rain. Crops had been suffering in that territory, but
the rain last night was said to in-
sure a bumper crop throughout two
counties or more.

N. P. REPORT

The Northern Pacific Railroad
reported rain which lasted from 30 minutes to an hour and thirty
minutes from Mandan to Jamestown
on the main line. Medina and Windsor reported fine rains. The reports were to the effect that immense good was done by the rain
through eastern Burleigh and in Kidder and Stutsman counties.

SOO LINE REPORT

The Soo line's report follows:
Light to fair rain at Baldwin and Wilton. From Wilton to Drake a
very heavy rain with the exception
of Russo, in northwestern McLean
county, where it did not rain. From Max to Parshall a heavy rain; light
to fair, Parshall to Sanish.

There was a good rain at Napoleon, Kintyre and Braddock, where it also rained the night before. It was light the rest of the Soo line
points from Bismarck to Wishek.

On the Pollock line it rained only at Pollock, S. D. Rain was scattered from Wishek to Hankinson, raining lightly at Lidgerwood, heavy at Genesee and Ransom, light to heavy at Forman.

There was a light rain at Wishek,
a good rain at Kulm; and no rain
at Oakes, Fullerton, Fredonia and Lehr.

It rained at some points this
morning, so that it was probable
the rain would cover more of southeastern North Dakota today.

Washburn reported an exception-
ally heavy rain, informing Soo line

PAYMENTS FOR N. D. HAIL FUND ARE ANNOUNCED

Figures for Five Years Show Tax Payments and Losses Paid Farmers

GAINS AND LOSSES

Thirty eight counties in the state have had more than insurance taxes than they have received payments for hail losses in the last five years, while 15 counties have received greater loss payments than they have received in taxes, according to the audit of the state made by the department made by O. B. Land, accountant.

The total excess of tax payments over loss payments is $4,000,250.16, the department having a large surplus.

The vote was on an amendment offered by liberal and conservative members, which was carried despite labor opposition. The government's reversal is not considered

RECORDS MADE IN OLYMPICS ARE RATIFIED

International Board Also Votes to Abolish Some Competition

Paris, July 18. (By the A. P.)—The Congress of the International Amateur Athletic Association today ratified seven world records and 12 Olympic records made during the past Olympic competition and eliminated four events from future Olympic programs. The events eliminated were the pentathlon, the 10,000 meter walk, the 5,000 meter track and the 10,000 meter cross country runs.

William C. Proot, president of the A. A. U., was elected American member of the federation council, succeeding Frederick W. Rubie.

Four out of the seven new world records ratified were hung up by athletes from the United States. These were the marks made by Robert Legendre, the former Georgetown star, in the broad jump, in the pentathlon; by Harold Osborne, Illinois A. C., in his decathlon victory, and by the American relay team in the 400-meters and 1,600-meter races.

The remaining world records are credited to Willie Ritola of Finland in the 10,000-meter run, to E. H. Luddell of England in the 400-meter event and to A. W. Whithers of Australia in the hop, skip and jump.

These marks also stand as new Olympic records. In addition to them Pavo Nurmi of Finland established three Olympic marks for the distances of 1,500, 3,000 and 5,000 meters. The marks made by Osborne in the running high jump and by Clarence Houser in the discus throw complete the list.

The curtailment of the Olympic program decided upon likely to affect especially such nations as Finland, which depend largely on their distance runners. The three events of this class eliminated gave Finland 49 points out of the 166 she scored in the 1924 games.

George Lupino, the oldest clown and actor in England, is also an accomplished artist.

ST. LOUIS ACE IS GOLF KING

Wireless Message Says Aviator Has Been Found

Tokio, July 18. (By the A. P.)—The foreign community and Japanese authorities took a deep breath of relief when news filtered down by wireless from the Kuriles islands that the McLaren part of the round the world fliers was safe.

The party, headed by A. Stuart McLaren, hopped off from Lake Tashimoye on Yatoru Island for Paramashiru Island last Wednesday. Until a Japanese destroyer picked up a wireless report from a commercial steamer that the party had landed on Uruppu Island, near the starting point of their hop, no word had been received from them. Nor, as yet has anything concerning the reason for their landing at that point been received.

This year's trans-Mississippi golf championship, the third most important amateur event in America, was won by James Manion of St. Louis, a former caddy and twice holder of the Missouri state championship. Manion's closest bid to national fame was when he carried Willie Hunter, former English Champion, to the thirty-sixth green in the 1921 event.

N. D. OFFICIAL VOTE CANVASS IS COMPLETED

Few Changes From the Unofficial Count in the State Are Recorded in It

SOME QUEER TURNS

Official results of the June 25 primary, as compiled by the state canvassing board, show little material change from the previous unofficial tabulations. The official majority of A. G. Sorlie, Republican candidate for Governor, over R. A. Nestos is 2,217.

Joseph A. Kitchen, Republican nominee for Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor, also was nominated on the Democratic ticket. He received 84 votes in the Democratic column to 83 for W. J. Church and 7 for Nick Nelson, the Democrats having not placed any one on the ballot for this office. Mr. Kitchen, however, cannot remain in both the Republican and Democratic columns in the fall election, according to officials.

The Nonpartisan League Party, which had a column on the primary ballot with the only candidate, M. C. Freerks of Jamestown, for Congressman of the Second district, polled few votes, names being written in by voters. Freerks received 17 votes, H. H. Aaker two to one for O. B. Burtness for Congressman from the First district, and J. H. Sinclair 8 votes to three for M. O. Hall for Congressman from the Third district. All Nonpartisan League candidates in the Republican column received votes in the Nonpartisan League Party, the highest being 11 for A. G. Sorlie, and all were nominated in this party, according to Deputy Secretary of State Duffy.

The official totals of the canvassing board follow:

Republican:

Governor—A. G. Sorlie 73,000; R. A. Nestos 70,783; L. J. Moe 6,544.

Lieutenant-Governor—Walter Maddock 77,985; Frank Ployhar 62,490.

Secretary of State—Robert Byrne 59,993; D. E. Shipley 56,005; O. A. Hall 26,556.

Auditor—John Steen 74,311; D. C. Poldexter 70,220.

Treasurer—C. A. Fisher 77,169; John Lynstad 62,984.

Attorney-General—George Shafer 73,705; T. H. H. Thoresen 67,421.

Commissioner of Insurance—S. A. Olmstead 70,739; Simon Nagel 63,246.

Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor—J. A. Kitchen 72,025; W. J. Church 70,201.

Commissioners of Railroads—Fay Harding 73,419; C. W. McDonnell 74,389; Frank Mitholan 72,539; M. F. Johnson 63,139; M. H. Lynch 59,441; L. L. Russell 58,027.

Congressman, First district—O. B. Burtness 28,522; H. H. Aaker 17,430.

Second district—Thomas Hall 25,121; John Sherman 21,265; E. A. Williams 8,243.

Third district—J. H. Sinclair 31,195; M. O. Hall 16,668.

Democratic results follow:

Governor—Halvor Halvorsen 6,020; L. S. Platou 5,244.

Lieutenant-Governor—J. H. McCoy 10,613.

Secretary of State—Lillian Gubelman 10,234.

State Auditor—George Leonhardy 10,100.

Treasurer—J. V. Birder 10,336.

Attorney-General—Tobias Casey 10,304.

Commissioner of Insurance—W. S. Hooper 9,987.

Commissioner of Agriculture—J. A. Kitchen 84; W. J. Church 53; Nick Nelson 7.

Commissioner of Railroads—L. M. Byrne 9,152; Edward Hadley 8,876; Edward Kibler 8,552.

For Congress, First district—W. L. Porterfield 529; Walter Welford 4,351.

Second district—J. L. Page 413.

Third district—M. O. Hall 37; J. H. Sinclair 38.

The vote for Governor on the Democratic ticket was 11,264 as compared to 10,200 two years previous.

The vote on candidates for the supreme court was: John Burke 55,209; Joseph Coghlan 14,292; C. J. Fisk 24,580; Frank Feetham 5,890; G. Grimson 18,218; F. O. Hellstrom 17,157.

The vote for superintendent of public instruction was G. W. Conn 26,200; Miss Minnie J. Nielson 73,820; Miss Bertha R. Palmer 51,893.

In the Fourth judicial district, where only the names of Judges James A. Coffey and Fred Jansoni went on the ballot, Harold Shaft of Bismarck and J. A. Murphy of Stutsman received enough "written in" votes to be nominated. They are not expected to qualify for the fall election. Mr. Shaft is court reporter for Judge Jansoni.

11 CITIES IN NEW CLASS

Have Over 100,000 Population As Result of Gains

Washington, July 19.—Eleven cities have grown into the 100,000 population class during the last year. Estimates of population of the principal cities of the country as of July 1, 1923, show there are 79 having 100,000 or more as compared with 68 last year. The census bureau in preparing the estimates did not calculate the population of some of the rapidly growing cities, such as Detroit, Los Angeles, Seattle, Denver, Akron, Bridgeport, Houston and Spokane. The population of the country on July 1, is estimated at 112,078,611.

The estimates of the larger cities, including New York 6,016,504; Chicago 5,839,293; Philadelphia 5,364,796; Cleveland 512,502; St. Louis

Minneapolis figures were 417,280; St. Paul's 243,946 and Duluth 108,395.

SCHOOL BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR IS CUT DOWN

Board of Education Fixes General Levy at $100,000 For Ensuing Year

A CUT OF $14,000

The city school board, in meeting Friday afternoon, fixed the levy for the ensuing school year at $100,000, exclusive of interest and sinking fund levies. This is a reduction of about $14,000 from last year's figure, according to members of the board. A further reduction might have been attempted, but the board decided to "play safe" in view of the uncertainty of tax collections.

Last year the levy was fixed at $123,000, exclusive of interest and sinking funds, but all of this was not levied, the amount exceeding the statutory limits.

The reduction in the budget for next year is made possible in part through an expected decrease in enrollment of the high school, the board having raised the tuition to outside pupils to a figure which is considerably higher but still is less than the actual cost of caring for the pupils. There is a reduction of four teachers, salary cuts for janitors, and less improvement around buildings are expected to be necessary.

The $100,000 will be augmented to some extent by fees paid in. Committees of the board of education for next year also were named as follows:

Buildings and Grounds—Geo. F. Will, Chm., W. F. Jones, E. V. Lahr.

Purchasing—W. F. Jones, Chm., Geo. F. Will, Geo. Register.

Teachers and Text Book—E. V. Lahr, Chm., Geo. F. Will, Geo. Register.

Finance and Insurance—Geo. Register, Chm., E. V. Lahr, W. F. Jones.

TWO HANGED IN ST. LOUIS

Were Found Guilty of Murder of Patrolman

St. Louis, July 19.—Charles Merrill, 23, and Hugh Pinkley, 35, convicted slayers of Patrolman Michael O'Connor, were hanged late yesterday. It was the first legal execution in St. Louis in 17 years. The double execution was practically simultaneous. The two men stood on parallel trapezoids on the sixth floor of the city jail and were dropped through the ceiling to the fifth, where Pinkley was pronounced dead after 15 minutes and Merrill after a lapse of 19 by Coroner Edward Richter.

A crowd had gathered outside the jail during the afternoon, and police had difficulty keeping an avenue clear for the hearse and undertakers' wagon which awaited the bodies.

The crime for which Merrill and Pinkley answered with their lives occurred April 22, 1922. Patrolman O'Connor while walking his beat, advised of a holdup at a packing plant. Entering the office, O'Connor discovered two bandits with drawn revolvers searching employees. He opened fire shooting over men's heads. One of the bandits returned the fire, killing O'Connor. They then ran for the door and encountering Patrolman Bernard Mengel, exchanged shots. Mengel was fatally wounded. Patrolman Lewis, who accompanied Mengel, was wounded by the robbers, who then fled in an automobile.

"BOY" WHO GAVE DIME TO DAVIS IS FOUND MAN

Asbury Park, N. J., July 19.—Announcement that John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee, had received a campaign contribution of a dime from a local 12-year-old boy developed the fact that the boy Harold Speer is 35 years old and weighs 260 pounds in a bathing suit.

Mr. Speer said today that he had always voted the Socialist ticket but sent the dime for the good luck of the Democratic nominee.

CONFIDENT OF APPROVAL OF EXPERT PLAN

General Dawes, in Letter to Fellow Members, Expresses Confidence

London, July 19.—"Our work must be and will be approved by the people of the world because always personal considerations were unknown in our efforts to point out the practical, economic and common sense basis of future cooperation between the allies and Germany," Charles G. Dawes declared in a message to his fellow members of the first expert committee, made public in part today by Owen D. Young.

The message was in reply to one of felicitation sent to the vice-presidential nominee of the Republican party by his fellow members of the committee which drew up the Dawes report.

"It is my prayer and expectation," General Dawes said. "That the important conference now in session in London will demonstrate that the nations are facing away from the chaos left by the war and from hatred with a sincere determination to found an enduring and Christian peace, based on common good faith."

FARMER DIES OF HEART ILL

Coroner E. J. Gobel, after investigating the death of Christ Gesel in Wilson township, Burleigh county, reported an inquest was unnecessary. Mr. Gesel, 69 years old, appeared in his usual health Thursday, ate a hearty supper, walked into the yard, felt ill, turned back into the house and dropped dead of heart failure. He leaves one son and one daughter. Funeral services were held today.

ONE MAN KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Grand Forks, N. D., July 19.—One man was killed by lightning at Ray, N. D., yesterday afternoon but details could not be learned tonight. At Madras, Mont., two houses were tipped over by wind but no further damage is reported. A heavy rain is reported throughout northwestern North Dakota.

WARD BUDGET IS CUT

Minot, N. D., July 19.—The Ward county commission has tentatively set the county budget for the fiscal year, beginning July 1, 1924, at $296,585.16, as compared with $330,855.00 for the preceding fiscal year, a cut of $33,998.44. The board will confer with taxpayers regarding the budget on July 22.

Approximately 95 per cent of tuberculosis cattle killed are dairy cows.

FEDERALS PLAN ON ASSAULT

Buenos Aires, July 19.—A midnight bulletin issued by the Rio Janeiro government on the present state of the Brazilian insurrection was received by La Nación. It states:

"Preparations are almost complete for executing a federal maneuver against the Sao Paulo government. Dense fog during the past 12 hours has hindered the necessary reconnoitering but the situation is favorable."

of the vice-presidential nomination. The letter follows:

"After careful consideration I have concluded to accept the honor your committee so generously conferred on me by tendering the nomination for vice-president as the running mate of the Honorable Robert M. LaFollette as candidate for President."

"I have no desire, as you know, to become a candidate for any office in the approaching election but have decided that it is my duty to accept your call because it appears to me that by so doing I can serve the highest interests of the American people."

"I regret exceedingly that the Democratic party in the recent national convention in New York so completely lost sight of the fundamental principles of democracy and ignored the great economic issues of the present hour. It has wretchedly abandoned an opportunity for great public service that never was so clearly within its reach and so certain to lead to success."

"While the farmers of the entire nation are facing bankruptcy, labor unemployed, business depressed and a large majority of our citizens suffering from sinister exploitation, the Republican and Democratic parties in convention ignored the call of the unorganized millions who are the victims of the present economic disorder and whose leaders whose training, whose sympathy and whose social and political associations are with the great predatory interests."

On Wall Street
"Every Democratic leader in and out of Congress has proclaimed the Democratic party free from the taint of Wall street and has blamed to some degree the financial interests centered there, but whose ramifications extend far from there, for the corruption in the Republican party and discriminatory legislation against the common people of America. What are the people to think when the standard bearer of their party is an attorney who represents these interests, who lives and associates with them and who typifies all that big business stands for just as much as the Republican nominee."

"In this situation, I find myself unable to support either the Republican candidates, who frankly admit their reactionary, standpat policy, or the Democratic candidates who may claim in well chosen phrases that he is a pro-progressive but whose training and associations belie any such pretension."

"Then, with Davis and Coolidge, there is only a choice for conservatives to make. The uncontrolled, liberal and progressive forces must look elsewhere for leadership. This is a time when every one who claims to be a progressive must show his colors, must support the candidacy of Robert M. LaFollette and the genuinely progressive program, or else forever disclaim any pretense to progressive political action. It is our duty to our country to give to the progressive and liberal forces for this nation an opportunity to express themselves in the coming election."

UNION FOR LAFOLLETTE
Detroit, July 19.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette's presidential campaign will be given the unanimous support of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, it was announced at union headquarters today.

The Man Whom the Years Forgot

He ran a successful business 20 years ago.

He had built up this business by hard personal effort.

Those who dealt with him knew that he could be relied upon, and anything which he sold was well worth the money.

And he had a fine group of customers. But customers change. Some of them die. Some go away. Some get restless and turn to competitors.

So it was with his customers. And not enough new ones came to take their place.

This man worked harder. He studied his products. He kept them up to date. In many ways he was the best posted man in his line of business.

Except for one thing—and on that one thing his competitors passed him. He did not keep in touch with old customers and attract new ones with sufficient energy.

He believed the old "mouse trap" saying, that people would beat a path to his door.

But competitors set up along the beaten path, and the customers were diverted.

What this man forgot was printing—and so the years forgot him.

He forgot to study the progress made in merchandising. He failed to see or find out the methods used by others in his same line of business, who were continually in communication with his customers, telling them the advantages of other merchandise, building confidence in other business institutions, winning away the people who had made this one business successful 20 years ago.

This is not the story of any one business. It is the story of scores of businesses, once successful, but today disappeared or disappearing from the field.

Don't let anyone forget your business. Keep in touch with your present market, and open a larger and larger market by using printing. We'll gladly show you examples of how many others are doing it. Call on us.

MARKET NEWS
HOG PRICES AT GOOD FIGURES
DURING WEEK

Except For One Slump Market at South St. Paul Is Steady During Week

CATTLE ARE LOWER

South St. Paul, July 19—Except for a 25 cent slump Monday when feeders ran for this time of year arrived, hog values have shown a continual and rapid upturn, says the weekly review of the United States Department of Agriculture. Declining receipts and a better outlet for dressed meat caused an advance of fully 75 cents from the low time of Monday and 55 cents from last Friday, top price of $7.35 paid today, being the highest point reached since last October. Bulk of the better grades of butcher and bacon hogs realized 7.50 to 7.65 with packing hogs sorted off at 6.75 to 6.85 for the bulk. Feeder pigs gained a quarter during the week, 6.00 being the popular price at the close.

Cattle followed an opposite trend from hogs, heavier receipts including many loads of grain stock forcing prices down 15 to 50 cents, fed steers and yearlings showing the least loss. Best yearlings offered scored 9.25 today, bulk steer and yearlings selling at 7.00 to 8.50. Fat she-stock went at about 3.50 to 6.50, mostly with canners and cutters still realizing 2.25 to 3.00. Bologna bulls found a rather dull outlet at 3.75 to 4.25. Veal calves suffered losses practically every day of the week, quotations today being $1.00 to $1.50 lower than a week ago. Bulk of the best lights closed at $8.00. Stockers and feeders have encountered a rather narrow demand and values slumped 25 to 50 cents. Bulk of the receipts were common to medium grades and realized $4.00 to $6.00 mostly. Fat lambs and sheep have been rather uneven throughout the week, values closing about 50 cents higher than a week ago. Bulk fat native lambs turned at $12.50 to $13.50 with culls sorted off at about $8.00 for the bulk. Fat ewes closed at $5.50 to $6.00, heavies around $4.00. Cattle receipts today were 100; hogs 1,000 and sheep 25.

1.25% to 1.26% and December 1.29% to 1.29 1/2.

Chicago, July 19. (By the A. P.) Rain in Canada and in parts of the domestic spring wheat crop belt led to fresh declines in the price of wheat early today during early dealing. Unexpected firmness of Liverpool quotations had only a temporary bullish influence on the Chicago market. Reports, however, that the weather of the next few days would determine the rust question for South Dakota and southern Minnesota attracted considerable notice. Opening prices, which ranged from one-half cent decline to one-half cent advance, September $1.24 1/2 to $1.25 and December 1.27 1/2 to 1.29 were followed by a material setback all around.

*CHICAGO LIVESTOCK
Chicago, July 19. Hog receipts 6,000. Active, 5 to 15 cents. Mostly 10 cents up. Top $8.30.
Cattle receipts 500. Most killing classes unevenly 25 to 75 cents lower. Extreme top handyweight and weighty steers 11.00.
Sheep receipts 15,000. Receipts practically all direct. Nominally steady. For week around 8,400. Feeding lambs 25 cents higher.

CHICAGO PRODUCE
Chicago, July 19—Butter steady to weak. Receipts 18,944 tubs. Creamery extras and standards 38 cents. Extra firsts 37 to 37 1/2 cents. Firsts 35 1/2 to 36 1/2 cents. Seconds 33 to 34 1/2 cents. Cheese higher; twins 17 1/2 to 17 3/4; twin daisies 17 1/2 to 17 3/4; single daisies 18 to 18 1/4; Americans 18 1/2 to 19 cents; long-horns 18 to 18 1/2 cents; brick 15 1/2 to 16; eggs unchanged; receipts 6, 118 cases; firsts 25 to 26; ordinary firsts 24 to 24 1/2 cents; storage pack firsts 26 1/2; poultry easy; fowls 16 to 20 1/2; broilers 28 to 35 cents; roosters 14 cents.

MINNEAPOLIS FLOUR
Minneapolis, July 19—Flour unchanged to 30 cents lower. In carload lots family patents quoted at 77 1/2 a barrel in 98-pound cotton sacks. Shipments 43,171 barrels. Bran $29.00.

MINNEAPOLIS GRAIN

CONTRACT IN WILL IS HELD
TO BE VALID

Emmons County Man Wins Considerable Estate By High Court Action

INVOLVES MANY HEIRS

Where the last will of a deceased person is made pursuant to a contract for support, the will may not be revoked subsequent to the demise of the author of the will, the supreme court held here in affirming the district court of Emmons county, in a will case.

The court also held that the jurisdiction of a probate court does not extend to the determination of rights in property left by the deceased, where such rights do not depend on heirship or will, but on contract and that the district court has original jurisdiction to determine property rights based upon contract. The sense decided in favor of Joseph Goodin, involved a will made by Mrs. Mary Cole, who died in Bismarck in 1921. The defendants in the case were Ella O. Casselman, W. S. Casselman, F. H. Register, Don L. Tracey, as county judge of Emmons county; Nick Offling, Margaret Fox, Mary Garwood, Lucy Lang, Mary Marzen, Margaret Offling, Henry Offling, Christina Offling, Mandy Offling, Ross Offling, Adam Offling, Riley Offling, John Offling, Mathias Offling, Philip Offling, Peter Offling, Agnes Offling and Kasper Offling. The defendants appealed the case.

Mary Cole, before she was brought from her Emmons county home to a Bismarck hospital, at first declined and later on the train signed a contract, giving property to Joseph Goodin for past services and for support until her death, according to the history of the case as given in the decision written by Justice Birdzell. She contracted to give Goodin 320 acres of land in Emmons county, lots 8, 9 and 10 and the east 30 feet and west 110 feet of lots 11 and 12, block 2, Bradlock, another small tract of land in Emmons county and 160 acres of land in Burleigh county. The provisions of the contract were incorporated in a will.

After being at the hospital, Mrs. Cole went to the home of a friend, Mrs. Ella O. Casselman in Bismarck. Before she died November 23, 1921, she made another will in which she gave Goodin some property, relatives gave and the residue to Ella O. Casselman. Both wills were offered for probate in Emmons county, and the later one admitted over the objections of Goodin. The plaintiff Goodin did not appeal to the district court. In the district court, hearing the case under the contract, the rights of Goodin were sustained under the contract and will. Separate appeals were made from the judgment, one by the executor and one by some beneficiaries under the second will. The high court affirmed the district court. The decision was three to two, Justice Christianson and Bronson dissenting from the majority view.

EVERY STATION
REPORTS RAIN
TO U. S. BUREAU

North Dakota gives the crops of the state a great boost on the last lap of their progress toward maturity, according to Agricultural College officials.
While rain was badly needed only in a number of more or less isolated areas, including no great acreage, the fall of last night will give the crops throughout the state a good freshening and aid the pastures and meadows which can always use more moisture, they said. The showers are also regarded as especially good for late flax and corn.
The downfall of last night was one of rather unusual evenness.

Every station reporting received some rain while no station received more than .71 of an inch.
The heavier rainfall, which fell in the northern portion of the state, is fortunate, according to N. D. Gorman, assistant county agent leader at the college, because grain crops are not as far advanced there as in the southern half and such spots as needed rain will still benefit greatly. Bottineau county, which needed rain, got the greatest fall recorded in the state. Ramsey county, parts of which needed rain, got .18 of an inch.

Killdeer, N. D., July 19—Tuesday evening three arrived by express from Wukwanago, Wis., five pure bred German heifer calves for Ernest Fabe of this community. Mr. Fabe paid $175 and the express for the five, which is considered reasonable for that kind of high class stock. They were from four to six months old, and are fine specimens of dairy cattle. Mr. Fabe intends to get rid of his Herefords this fall and add to his stock of dairy cattle as he figures the dairy end of it is more profitable than the beef.

WELL KNOWN
RANCHER DIES

Beach, N. D., July 19.—John G. Johnson, a well known rancher and bank director was found dead in his room at the Rough Riders hotel in Madora, last Sunday morning. He retired on Saturday evening apparently as well as usual. He was a man who has always been in the best of health so the end came as considerable of a shock to the community.
John Gottfred Johnson was born in Algetaboda, Sweden, March 16, 1866. He came to America with his parents when only three years old.

"Now most of those in our morning class at 10:30 for boys and girls are under ten years. Quite a number ranging from six to eight years are learning to swim. There are even some younger ones in the class."
A dozen women also are making progress in the 9:30 a. m. class. On Monday and Wednesday evenings, at 7:15, there is a class for people who are unable to get to the pool during the day.
Next week life saving will be taken up with classes for boys at 11 a. m. and girls at 2 p. m. American Red Cross methods will be taught.
A number of young boys and girls are also taking special instruction in fancy diving, and are improving rapidly.

Fargo, July 19—Northern Pacific railway employees of three divisions, will hold a big picnic at Big Trout lake on Sunday, July 27.

The three divisions are the Minnesota with headquarters here; and the Dakota with headquarters at Jamestown. This includes territory from Staples to Glendive, Mont. A special picnic train will leave Jamestown at about 5:15 a. m. and will get to Fargo 30 minutes ahead of No. 10, eastbound, due to arrive here at 8:20. A special train will leave Staples at about 9:30 a. m. Picnickers from west of Jamestown will come to that town Saturday evening.

The entertainment committee is at work at a varied program for the day with dancing as one of the forms of amusement. There will be various races, including swimming, and baseball between Staples and Little Sauk, Minn. Small buttons bearing the N. P. monogram will be worn by the picnickers and will entitle them to ice cream, pop and coffee.

HOG PRICES AT GOOD FIGURES DURING WEEK

Except For One Slump Market at South St. Paul Is Steady During Week

CATTLE ARE LOWER

South St. Paul, July 19.—Except for a 25 cent slump Monday when record runs for this time of year arrived, hog values have shown a continual and rapid upturn, says the weekly review of the United States Department of Agriculture. Declining receipts and a better outlet for dressed meat caused an advance of fully 75 cents from the low time of Monday and 55 cents from last Friday, top price of $7.65 paid today, being the highest point reached since last October. Bulk of the better grades of butcher and bacon hogs realized 7.50 to 7.65 with packing sows sorted off at 6.75 to 6.85 for the bulk. Feeder pigs gained a quarter during the week, 6.00 being the popular price at the close.

Cattle followed an opposite trend from hogs, heavier receipts including many loads of grain stock forcing prices down 15 to 50 cents, fed steers and yearlings showing the least loss. Best yearlings offered scored 9.25 today, bulk steer and yearlings selling at 7.00 to 8.50. Fat she-stock went at about 3.50 to 6.50, mostly with canners and cutters still realizing 2.25 to 3.00. Bologna bulls found a rather dull outlet at 3.75 to 4.25. Veal calves suffered losses practically every day of the week, quotations today being $1.00 to $1.50 lower than a week ago. Bulk of the best lights closed at $8.00. Stockers and feeders have encountered a rather narrow demand and values slumped 25 to 50 cents. Bulk of the receipts were common to medium grades and realized $4.00 to $6.00 mostly.

Fat lambs and sheep have been rather uneven throughout the week, values closing about 50 cents higher than a week ago. Bulk fat native lambs turned at $12.50 to $15.50 with culls sorted off at about $8.00 for the bulk. Fat ewes closed at $5.50 to $6.00, heavies around $4.00. Cattle receipts today were 100; hogs 1,000 and sheep 25.

Chicago, July 19. (By the A. P.)—Rains in Canada and in parts of the domestic spring wheat crop belt led to fresh declines in the price of wheat early today during early dealings. Unexpected firmness of Liverpool quotations had only a temporary bullish influence on the Chicago market. Reports, however, that the weather of the next few days would determine the rust question for South Dakota and southern Minnesota attracted considerable notice. Opening prices, which ranged from one-half cent decline to one-half cent advance, September $1.24 1/2 to $1.25 and December 1.27 1/2 to 1.29 were followed by a material setback all around.

N. D. OFFICIAL VOTE CANVASS IS COMPLETED

SOME QUEER TURNS

Official results of the June 25 primary, as compiled by the state canvassing board, show little material change from the previous unofficial tabulations. The official majority of A. G. Sorlie, Republican candidate for Governor, over R. A. Nestos is 2,217.

Joseph A. Kitchen, Republican nominee for Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor, also was nominated on the Democratic ticket. He received 84 votes in the Democratic column to 83 for W. J. Church and 7 for Nick Nelson, the Democrats having not placed any one on the ballot for this office. Mr. Kitchen, however, cannot remain in both the Republican and Democratic columns in the fall election, according to officials.

The Nonpartisan League Party, which had a column on the primary ballot with the only candidate, M. C. Freerks of Jamestown, for Congress, of the Second district, pulled few votes, names being written in by voters. Freerks received 17 votes. H. H. Aker two to one for O. R. Burtness for congressman from the First district, and J. H. Sinclair 8 votes to three for M. O. Hall for congressman from the Third district. All Nonpartisan League candidates in the Republican column received votes in the Nonpartisan League Party, the highest being 11 for A. G. Sorlie, and all were nominated in this party, according to Deputy Secretary of State Duffy.

The official totals of the canvassing board follow:

The vote for Governor, on the Democratic ticket was 11,264 as compared to 10,200 two years previous.

The vote on candidates for the supreme court was: John Burke 55, 209; Joseph Coghlan 14,292; C. J. Fisk 24,540; Frank Feetham 5,890; G. Grimson 18,218; F. O. Hellstrom 17,157.

The vote for superintendent of public instruction was G. W. Conn 26,200; Miss Minnie J. Nielson 73,820; Miss Bertha R. Palmer 31,893.

In the Fourth judicial district, where only the names of Judges James A. Coffey and Fred Schanus went on the ballot, Harold Shaft of Bismarck and J. A. Murphy of Stutsman received enough "written in" votes to be nominated. They are not expected to qualify for the fall election. Mr. Shaft is court reporter for Judge Schanus.

SCHOOL BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR IS CUT DOWN

Board of Education Fixes General Levy at $100,000 For Ensuing Year

A CUT OF $11,000

The city school board, in meeting Friday afternoon, fixed the levy for the ensuing school year at $100,000, exclusive of interest and sinking fund levies. This is a reduction of about $14,000 from last year's figure, according to members of the board.

A further reduction might have been attempted, but the board decided to "play safe" in view of the uncertainty of tax collections.

Last year the levy was fixed at $112,000, exclusive of interest and sinking fund, but all of this was not levied, the amount exceeding the statutory limit.

The reduction in the budget for next year is made possible in part through an expected decrease in the enrollment of the high school, the board having raised the tuition to outside pupils to a figure which is considerably higher but still is less than the actual cost of caring for the pupils. There is a reduction of four teachers, salary cuts for janitors, and less improvements around buildings are expected to be necessary.

The $100,000 will be augmented to some extent by fees paid in.

Committees of the board of education for next year also were named as follows:

Buildings and Grounds—Geo. F. Will, Chm., W. F. Jones, E. V. Lahr.

Purchasing—W. F. Jones, Chm., Geo. F. Will, Geo. Register.

Teachers and Text Book—E. V. Lahr, Chm., Geo. F. Will, Geo. Register.

Finance and Insurance—Geo. Register, Chm., L. V. Lahr, W. F. Jones.

"BOY" WHO GAVE DIME TO DAVIS IS FOUND MAN

Asbury Park, N. J., July 19.—Announcement that John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee, had received a campaign contribution of a dime from a local 12-year-old boy developed the fact that the boy Harold Speer is 35 years old and weighs 200 pounds in a bathing suit.

Mr. Speer said today that he had always voted the Socialist ticket but sent the dime for the good luck of the Democratic nominee.

General Dawes, in Letter to Fellow Members, Expresses Confidence

London, July 19.—"Our work must be and will be approved by the people of the world because always personal considerations were unknown in our efforts to point out the practical, economic and common sense basis of future cooperation between the allies and Germany," Charles G. Dawes declared in a message to his fellow members of the first expert committee, made public in part today by Owen D. Young.

The message was in reply to one of felicitation sent to the vice-presidential nominee of the Republican party by his fellow members of the committee which drew up the Dawes report.

"It is my prayer and expectation," General Dawes said, "that the important conference now in session in London will demonstrate that the nations are facing away from the chaos left by the war and from hatred with a sincere determination to found an enduring and Christian peace, based on common good faith."

TWO HANGED IN ST. LOUIS

Were Found Guilty of Murder of Patrolman

St. Louis, July 19.—Charles Merrill, 23, and Hugh Pinkley, 35, convicted slayers of Patrolman Michael O'Connor, were hanged late yesterday. It was the first legal execution in St. Louis in 17 years.

The double execution was practically simultaneous. The two men stood on parallel trapdoors on the sixth floor of the city jail and were dropped through the ceiling to the fifth, where Pinkley was pronounced dead after 15 minutes and Merrill after a lapse of 19 by Coroner Edward Richter.

A crowd had gathered outside the jail during the afternoon, and police had difficulty keeping an avenue clear for the hearse and undertakers' wagon which awaited the bodies.

The crime for which Merrill and Pinkley answered with their lives occurred April 22, 1922. Patrolman O'Connor while walking his beat, was advised of a holdup at a packing plant. Entering the office, O'Connor discovered two bandits with drawn revolvers searching employees. He opened fire shooting over men's heads. One of the bandits returned the fire, killing O'Connor. They then ran for the door and encountered Patrolman

FARMER DIES OF HEART ILL

Coroner E. J. Gobel, after investigating the death of Christ Gessle in Wilson township, Burleigh county, reported an inquest was unnecessary. Mr. Gessle, 69 years old, appeared in his usual health Thursday, ate a hearty supper, walked into the yard, felt ill, turned back into the house and dropped dead of heart failure. He leaves one son and one daughter. Funeral services were held today.

ONE MAN KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Grand Forks, N. D., July 19.—One man was killed by lightning at Ray, N. D., yesterday afternoon, but details could not be learned tonight. At Madrah, Mont., two houses were tipped over by wind but no further damage is reported. A heavy rain is reported throughout northwestern North Dakota.

The vice-presidential nomination. The letter follows:

"After careful consideration I have concluded to accept the honor your committee so generously conferred on me by tendering the nomination for vice-president to the running mate of the Honorable Robert M. La Follette as candidate for President.

"I have no desire, as you know, to become a candidate for any office in the approaching election but have decided that it is my duty to accept your call because it appears to me that by so doing I can serve the highest interests of the American people.

"I regret exceedingly that the Democratic party in the recent national convention in New York so completely lost sight of the fundamental principles of democracy and ignored the great economic issues of the present hour. It has wantonly abandoned an opportunity for great public service that never was so clearly within its reach and so certain to lead to success.

"While the farmers of the entire nation are facing bankruptcy, labor unemployed, business depressed and a large majority of our citizens suffering from sinister exploitation, the Republican and Democratic parties in convention ignored the call of the unorganized millions who are the victims of the present economic disorder and whose leaders whose training, whose sympathy and whose social and political associations are with the great predatory interests.

On Wall Street

"Every Democratic leader in and out of Congress has proclaimed the Democratic party free from the taint of Wall street and has blamed to some degree the financial interests centered there, but whose ramifications extend far from there, for the corruption in the Republican party and discriminatory legislation against the common people of America. What are the people to think when the standard bearer of their party is an attorney who represents the money claim in well chosen phrases that he is a pro-progressive but whose training and associations belie any such pretension.

"Then, with Davis and Coolidge, there is only a choice for conservatives to make. The uncontrolled liberal and progressive forces must look elsewhere for leadership.

"This is a time when every one who claims to be progressive must show his colors, must support the candidacy of Robert M. La Follette and the genuinely progressive program, or else forever disclaim any pretense to progressive political action. It is our duty to our country to give to the progressive and liberal forces for this nation an opportunity to express themselves in the coming election.

The Man Whom the Years Forgot

He ran a successful business 20 years ago.

He had built up this business by hard personal effort.

Those who dealt with him knew that he could be relied upon, and anything which he sold was well worth the money.

And he had a fine group of customers. But customers change. Some of them die. Some go away. Some get restless and turn to competitors.

So it was with his customers. And not enough new ones came to take their place.

This man worked harder. He studied his products. He kept them up to date. In many ways he was the best posted man in his line of business.

Except for one thing—and on that one thing his competitors passed him. He did not keep in touch with old customers and attract new ones with sufficient energy.

He believed the old "mouse trap" saying, that people would beat a path to his door.

But competitors set up along the beaten path, and the customers were diverted.

What this man forgot was printing—and so the years forgot him.

He forgot to study the progress made in merchandising. He failed to see or find out the methods used by others in his same line of business, who were continually in communication with his customers, telling them the advantages of other merchandise, building confidence in other business institutions, winning away the people who had made this one business successful 20 years ago.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

THE JEALOUSIES REMAIN

It was thought possible by many observers of old world politics that the labor government of England and the radical government of France would at least take some decisive action toward a settlement of the vexatious problem of reparations and German relations, unencumbered by the jealousies which have marked the diplomatic relations of the entente. But there appears to be no real change in the situation. There is hope that the present inter-allied conference in London will lead to the adoption of the Dawes plan in practical fashion, but it appeared just as likely that this would have come had Poincare not been deposed in France.

M. Herriot, the new French premier, sits on a shaky throne. At the outset he took a rather firm stand toward Germany, differing not much from that of his predecessor, and when he appeared to come under the domination of the English premier the doughty Poincare was ready to spring at his throat. With the challenge of a surrender of French interests in subservience to MacDonald, Herriot was in a bad position, and Ramsay MacDonald, the English Premier, hurried to France to help him out.

The French have taken a more adamant stand in the inter-allied conference. They insist that the underwriting of a German loan shall be made a condition precedent to an acknowledgment that the Dawes plan is in effect. The question of who shall decide when and if Germany is in default in carrying out the plan was another problem before France. It had been assumed the League of Nations would act as arbiter, but the French have held little faith in this body. So the counter-proposal of an American arbiter was brought forward. This may be accomplished, though it would be a most unusual citizen for a guarantee to be enforced by an American when this nation is not a participant in the Treaty of Versailles.

Ramsay MacDonald is faced by a slender majority in England. Indeed, his government probably could be defeated by a frontal attack. He of necessity must adopt a conciliatory and moderate tone in his dealings with the German problem, from the very character of his seat of power. At the same time he must satisfy the more aggressive French policy, which differs not greatly under a radical premier when the question of Germany and reparations is brought forward.

SAD PASSING AWAY

"Here," said the Telegraph Editor, "is a cable announcing a big concentration of Italian troops at Rhodes. Now, exactly where in thunder is Rhodes?"

"A little far eastern island in the Aegean," spoke up the Literary Editor, at the next desk. "Famous city in ancient times because it had the Colossus, a 100-foot statue, made of enemy war engines, by which passed the world's maritime commerce. But Colossus was sold for old junk years ago."

"Yes," said the Foreign News Editor, "nothing but a name left, and it is tremendously sad to contemplate the passing of the ancient world wonders. Last year, in Rome, I stood on the very marble slab from which great Cicero thundered to the world. Gone! Centuries gone!"

"Nothing on the rostrum but a saddened young foreign correspondent and a little lizard catching flies. Ruins of column, seat and terrace before one and the silence of death over all. But, one could re-create the old scenes from his college Latin studies."

"On this very slab strode mighty Cicero, back and forth, thundering against governmental wrong. Here he poised to plunge his dagger of invective into the Senate with pointed finger."

"With fist raised above his head, he hurls his charges at the wily Cataline, seated over there with toga sleeve over his face to hide his guilt. 'Copellus, liar, boddler!' he yells at another, and a dozen senators stir nervously in their seats."

"The air cracks, the hills shake with the grandeur of his eloquence and, when he closes with naming grafter, boddler, and traitor, the whole senate springs to its feet and—"

"Say Jim," broke in the Sporting Editor, "you're scaring all the flies away from that lizard."

ABUSED

Are we in earnest or just "talking through our hats" when we platonically abuse money as the root of evil? All people love money, but to hear some of them talk one would think the Almighty Dollar their worst enemy.

Dr. Nils Westermark, Swedish scientist, says America now leads the world in sciences. For this, thank money—which is too much abused. Germany is losing out scientifically because she hasn't the cash to lead in research work. We have.

CATFISH

Catfish—six and a half million pounds in eight months—are taken from Lake Okeechobee in Florida and "shipped to distant markets."

We wonder under what name they appeared on the bill-of-fare. Did you ever see catfish on the menu? Maybe it's just as well we don't know the history of everything we eat in civilization. We might have an epidemic of voluntary starvation.

LADIES

A smoking car for women is attached to one of the fast Chicago-St. Louis trains on the Illinois Central. It'll be there permanently. Traffic demanded it.

Times certainly are changing. Maybe you'll live to see women smoking pipes on the street—some of them even chewing tobacco.

DUBLIN TALKS WITH WASHINGTON

An Irish minister plenipotentiary at Washington is a development not unexpected but now assured. The British government has authorized the proper representations to the government of the United States and Prof. Timothy A. Smiddy will presumably soon be invested with the dignities and duties of the office to which he was already appointed in advance of the imperial approval.

Prof. Smiddy does not dwell upon the grievous pains that have accompanied the birth of the Irish Free State. He is neither orator nor warrior, but an economist, of the staff of Cork university. He is not a super-patriot who hopes to make the Free State independent of Great Britain and the world, but an advocate of international trade who distrusts high tariffs and rejoices to see vessels again busy trafficking between Ireland and world markets. He is now in the United States to encourage that very commerce and he is apparently more interested in making Irish laces and linens popular than he is in advertising his poetry.

Romance does not attach itself to trade, but there is no doubt that the Free State is well served by those who, like her new minister, are busily encouraging the resumption of orderly production in the disorganized counties of Ireland. Agriculture and neighborhood industries hold out fair hopes for the people of the new dominion. It is to be hoped that the appointment of a minister sympathetic with this idea and capable in its advocacy will be followed by more prosperous trade between his land and the United States. And for whatever dignity accrues to the Irish Free State by virtue of the privilege of dealing directly with a foreign government sincere congratulations are in order. It is another step toward achieving the full status of a self-governing dominion—Baltimore Sun.

FRIENDLY RIVALS

Paris spontaneously acclaimed the arrival of the American Olympic team. The 200-odd chosen to represent the United States are a husky lot and are recognized as dangerous contenders. But France struck the note of friendly rivalry. The sportsman turned out to manifest their utmost in cordiality and admiration.

Perhaps there was a recollection of a recent soccer match in which a rowdy element offered an unrepentant example of French sportsmanship. Perhaps the Parisians wanted to make amends for that incident. They succeeded. The United States had judged the earlier incident right, but the reception of Frenchness will make "all right" a little righter.

Sportsmen here have not forgotten that a scattering few young sports once hissed Criegel, whom the majority acclaimed as a gentleman and fighter.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

One of the most interesting places in the Go Lucky Park, where Nancy and Nick were helping Mister Zip, the fairyman, was the fun house.

You went in by crawling through a barrel and when you got in the middle of it, it began to spin around like a hoop, upsetting you and rolling you over and over like a dice in a dice box.

When finally you got inside there was a sign which said "The Puzzle Patch." It looked as easy as pie when you went in. But it wasn't so easy, as the fly-fountain when he got caught in the spider-web. For the passages twisted and turned this way and that and you always met yourself coming back. You were lucky if you got out in half an hour.

And then there were the funny mirrors that made you fat or made you lean or made you lumpy or bow-legged or even turned you upside down.

Now fat, dignified Mrs. Woodchuck said that never, never would she go to Happy Go Lucky Park again after Nick took her picture and got Mrs. Bunny's ears in it by mistake.

But one day Mister Woodchuck and the children coaxed and coaxed her until she said finally, "All right. I'll go then. But remember—no nonsense."

Mister Woodchuck stopped in front of the fun house. "This looks pretty good. Let's go in," he said. "Looks silly," said Mrs. Woodchuck in a resigned voice. "But I'm in for it now. Go on if you want to."

So with whoops of delight the little Woodchuck boys and fat Mrs. Woodchuck went in and got rolled around in the barrel and thought it was fine fun.

At last, nothing of the sort, said Mrs. Woodchuck when they coaxed her to come along.

"There's another door," said Nancy. "Go in that way."

And the first thing you know wasn't Mrs. Woodchuck lost in "The Puzzle Patch."

And get out she couldn't. She wandered around and around and finally shouted, "Help! And Nancy had to go in and rescue her.

Then came the mirrors. And the first one made you look like a wash-tub. Mrs. Woodchuck was fat enough, dear knows, and she shrieked when she saw herself. "Lands alive!" Take me away," she cried.

"Come on and try this one, Ma," shouted Wobbly, "it will make you thin."

"I'll do nothing of the sort," snapped Mrs. Woodchuck, getting crosser and crosser. "I've no notion of being made a goose of any more."

"Then come on over here," called Mister Woodchuck, who was standing on a little bridge.

So panting indignantly, Mrs. Woodchuck followed.

But no sooner had she reached the middle of the bridge than it folded up with her and then instantly set itself right again, for it was a trick bridge.

"Take me home! Take me home!" wailed poor Mrs. Woodchuck. "This is a terrible place."

"Why you haven't seen half, Mom," said Wobbly, who was having a gorgeous time.

"That's twice too much," snapped Mrs. Woodchuck, and home she marched.

LOOKS BEST AT A DISTANCE

By Albert Apple

Three centuries seem long ago. It is. But in 1632 when some unknown English progressive brought the first fork over from France, "the good old days" were at their best. Shakespeare had been dead 16 years. The Immortal Bard never used a fork. He never even saw one. It must have been a sight to watch people eat in those "good old days."

Sewage systems were not in use in the "good old days." Refuse and dishwater were tossed into the gutters. Small wonder, plagues made people die like flies.

No one had running water for kitchen and bath. Carrying water in buckets a long distance or buying it from water carts—these are not attractive. People bathed so seldom that they had to invent high-power perfumes in order to get within speaking distance of each other without suspecting that a regiment of skunks was at large.

It was an age of discomforts and inconveniences. No labor-saving devices had been invented for homes. Women worked themselves into their graves prematurely.

Ignorance and medical superstition were frightful. Morals several centuries ago were so lax that, by comparison, the jazz tendency of our generation is tame.

Crime was far more prevalent than now. No one could take a short stagecoach trip between towns safely without carrying a brace of pistols. Men were imprisoned for debt.

The "good old days" have been painted in romantic colors by fiction writers. That's why they seem attractive to people today. But if you could turn the clock back a few hundred years and live the life of those times, you'd buy a return ticket promptly.

A fiction writer makes an old-time dungeon alluring, romantic, adventurous. Truth is, the dungeon was damp, cold, dark, infested with rats, reeking with lice. Guards were brutal. Justice was slow. Penalties were severe. Food was mainly mouldy old bread and water.

Romance? Good old days? It's a joke!

The love part of your letter, dear Jim, was very poetic and beautiful, and I think my greatest happiness was that I have not become so hardened that I could not appreciate it. My eyes grew misty as I read it, and I think, dear boy, that I was a little envious—for Jim, dear Jim, I have never had anyone to whom I could talk like that and mean it. I don't think I'm capable of it.

The utter sincerity of your devotion is almost religious in its fervor. That you are a worshipper at a false shrine, and that your idol is a thing from the sublimity of your great faith. No one, it seems, from what you wrote me of the conversation that you overheard, could shatter your faith in me.

Some day, Jim, however, I have a feeling that I myself will destroy your trust, much as I want to love it. I am not the superwoman that you think I am. I'm only an idol that you worship, and I shall be toppled over and broken into bits by my poor human failings, some day.

I would feel worse about this if I did not know that I will be the only thing to be broken—your heart will still be intact.

So you thought Jack Prescott looked at me as though I belonged to him? Jim, in the language of the street, if Jack Prescott has any such thought as that, he has another thing coming. I don't belong to any one except Sally Athonton.

My dear man, my arrogance and conceit are so colossal. Many, many times, knowing Leslie as I do, I know the wonderful plans he brings down and retails to me as conceptions of his own, are something she has put into his head. He's a clever chap for all that, and I probably shall go to lunch and dine with him again and again, dear boy, whatever people may say. I may be martyred in the coming years for my assumption that a woman may do exactly what a man may do without any more compunction than a man, and get away with it. But all the same, I'm going to live along this line as long as I do live.

Of course I know that it is fortunate that I am hard-headed, but I have schooled myself to be and to think like a man. Whenever I find myself growing in sentiment, I immediately try to be as sentimental as possible. Men are always sentimental, but they haven't much sentiment.

Women, on the other hand, are less apt to be moved by their emotions, but they have a great deal of that tenderness and loyalty which to me is sentiment.

Jim, dear Jim, don't think of me too much, for I'm not worth it, as conventional women goes. I'm just a woman who is determined to succeed, determined to do the thing she wants to do and best new thing is to be one of the best known advertising experts in the country.

Come again and see me. I'll try not to hurt you, but don't expect me to break any engagements for you—that's not businesslike.

New York, July 19.—H. L. Meader, living in the heart of teeming New York, has all the grandeur and environment of an estate in the country.

He lives atop the Waldorf Building, in thirty-third street, just off Fifth avenue.

Meader is a bachelor and the architect who designed the building.

From the roofs of taller buildings, Meader's home is as alluring as a shady spot along the banks of a babbling brook on a steaming August day.

His large kitchen garden, green in the careful daily attention it is given not only by nature but by an efficient gardener, is a model.

Meader's rooftop home is comfortable in every way. There always is a breeze stirring at his front yard.

Being high above the bug line, Meader's garden is not infested with insects. In the evening it is lighted and Meader has open-air garden parties in a district inhabited by thousands of people—yet none can molest him.

But with all this summer luxury in New York, Meader, closes his home before summer is well under way, and sails to sea in his yacht.

When he is gone the house is closed.

Anniversary of An Alphabet Is Celebrated

Sofia, July 19. (A. P.)—The Bulgarian people celebrated a unique holiday on May 24 when throughout the country was observed the "Name day" of the Slavic, or Cyrillic, alphabet and of its creator, the monks Cyril and his brother Methodius.

It was in the ninth century and from the city of Salonica that these holy men promulgated their alphabet which was designed to propagate the Christian faith among Slavic peoples.

One of the notable observances took place at the Monastery of St. Ivan of Rila, in the mountains above Samokov, where the Bulgarian letters created by the apostles from Latin, Greek and Hebrew material, were preserved from extinction during the Turkish domination of five centuries.

The celebration of the day is also marked by the Orthodox Church to recall the introduction of Christianity among the Bulgarian people, and its spread to the other Slavic peoples by the followers of St. Cyril and Methodius.

Smoking is permitted in a Sunday Bible class at Burlington, England.

THE ELTINGE
Monte Blue, Marie Prevost and Louise Fazenda play the principal parts in "Being Respectable," which will play at the Eltinge Theatre Monday and Tuesday. The story is woven around a respectable, old New England family, established in the community and looked up to by the entire locality as a shining example of respectability. The unfolding of the drama reveals the Carpenters, as the family is known, as very human people with failings much the same as their neighbors—and with brother and sister following their own inclinations in their daily life.

The book is one of the most distinguished and honest pictures of American life written in recent years, and sent its author, Grace Flandrau, hitherto unknown, into the Who's Who class of portrayers of everyday American life.

What is worn at Grand Prix not only is indicative of what will be worn all summer in Deauville, Biarritz and the Lido, but also forecasts the new collections of the French couturiers which appear in early and late August.

Many checks, both in alpaca and in sheer materials, much black and white, much mousseline de soie in pastel colors, many large hats, strange little square parasols, fantastic leopard skin trimmings, many gay figured frocks and enough frocks along Japanese lines to make one wonder what their vogue is to be this coming winter.

THE JEALOUSIES REMAIN

It was thought possible by many observers of old world politics that the labor government of England and the radical government of France would at least take some decisive action toward a settlement of the vexatious problem of reparations and German relations, unencumbered by the jealousies which have marked the diplomatic relations of the entente. But there appears to be no real change in the situation. There is hope that the present inter-allied conference in London will lead to the adoption of the Dawes plan in practical fashion, but it appeared just as likely that this would have come had Poincare not been deposed in France.

M. Herriot, the new French premier, sits on a shaky throne. At the outset he took a rather firm stand toward Germany, differing not much from that of his predecessor, and when he appeared to come under the domination of the English premier the doughty Poincare was ready to spring at his throat. With the challenge of a surrender of French interests in subservience to MacDonald, Herriot was in a bad position, and Ramsay MacDonald, the English Premier, hurried to France to help him out.

The French have taken a more adamant stand in the inter-allied conference. They insist that the underwriting of a German loan shall be made a condition precedent to an acknowledgment that the Dawes plan is in effect. The question of who shall decide when and if Germany is in default in carrying out the plan was another problem before France. It had been assumed the League of Nations would act as arbiter, but the French have held little faith in this body. So the counter-proposal of an American arbiter was brought forward. This may be accomplished, though it would be a most unusual citizen for a guarantee to be enforced by an American when this nation is not a participant in the Treaty of Versailles.

Ramsay MacDonald is faced by a slender majority in England. Indeed, his government probably could be deposed by a frontal attack. He of necessity must adopt a conciliatory and moderate tone in his dealings with the German problem, from the very character of his seat of power. At the same time he must satisfy the more aggressive French policy, which differs not greatly under a radical premier when the question of Germany and reparations is brought forward.

SAD PASSING AWAY

"Here," said the Telegraph Editor, "is a cable announcing a big concentration of Italian troops at Rhodes. Now, exactly where in thunder is Rhodes?"

"A little far eastern island in the Aegean," spoke up the Literary Editor, at the next desk. "Famous city in ancient times because it had the Colossus, a 100-foot statue, made of enemy war engines, by which passed the world's maritime commerce. But Colossus was sold for old junk years ago."

"Yes," said the Foreign News Editor, "nothing but a name left, and it is tremendously sad to contemplate the passing of the ancient world wonders. Last year, in Rome, I stood on the very marble slab from which great Cicero thundered to the world. Gone! Centuries gone!"

"Nothing on the rostrum but a saddened young foreign correspondent and a little lizard catching flies. Ruins of column, seat and terrace before one and the silence of death over all. But, one could re-create the old scenes from his college Latin studies."

"On this very slab strode mighty Cicero, back and forth, thundering against governmental wrong. Here he poised to plunge his dagger of invective into the Senate with pointed finger."

"With fist raised above his head, he hurls his charges at the wily Cataline, seated over there with toga sleeve over his face to hide his guilt. 'Copellus, liar, boddler!' he yells at another, and a dozen senators stir nervously in their seats."

"The air cracks, the hills shake with the grandeur of his eloquence and, when he closes with naming grafter, boddler, and traitor, the whole senate springs to its feet and—"

"Say Jim," broke in the Sporting Editor, "you're scaring all the flies away from that lizard."

ABUSED

Are we earnest or just "talking through our hats" when we platonically abuse money as the root of evil? All people love money, but to hear some of them talk one would think the Almighty Dollar their worst enemy.

D. Nils Westermarck, Swedish scientist, says America now leads the world in sciences. For this, thank money—which is too much abused. Germany is losing out scientifically because she hasn't the cash to lead in research work. We have.

CATFISH

Catfish—six and a half million pounds in eight months—are taken from Lake Okechobee in Florida and "shipped to distant markets."

We wonder under what name they appeared on the bill of fare. Did you ever see catfish on the menu? Maybe it's just as well we don't know the history of everything we eat in civilization. We might have an epidemic of voluntary starvation.

LADIES

A smoking car for women is attached to one of the fast Chicago-St. Louis trains on the Illinois Central. It'll be there permanently. Traffic demanded it.

Times certainly are changing.

Maybe you'll live to see women smoking pipes on the street—some of them even chewing tobacco.

DUBLIN TALKS WITH WASHINGTON

An Irish minister plenipotentiary at Washington is a development not unexpected but now assured. The British government has authorized the proper representations to the government of the United States and Prof. Timothy A. Smiddy will presumably soon be invested with the dignities and duties of the office to which he was already appointed in advance of the imperial approval.

Prof. Smiddy does not dwell upon the grievous pains that have accompanied the birth of the Irish Free State. He is neither orator nor warrior, but an economist, of the staff of Cork university. He is not a super-patriot who hopes to make the Free State independent of Great Britain and the world, but an advocate of international trade who distrusts high tariffs and resists to see vessels again busy trafficking between Ireland and world markets. He is now in the United States to encourage that very commerce and he is apparently more interested in making Irish lace and linens popular than he is in advertising her poetry.

Romance does not attach itself to trade, but there is no doubt that those who like her new minister, are busily encouraging the resumption of orderly production in the disorganized counties of Ireland. Agriculture and neighborhood industries hold out fair hopes for the people of the new dominion. It is to be hoped that the appointment of a minister sympathetic with this idea and capable in its advocacy will be followed by more prosperous trade between his land and the United States. And for whatever dignity accrues to the Irish Free State by virtue of the privilege of dealing directly with a foreign government, sincere congratulations are in order. It is another step toward achieving the full status of a self-governing dominion—Baltimore Sun.

FRIENDLY RIVALS

Paris spontaneously acclaimed the arrival of the American Olympic team. The 200-odd chosen to represent the United States are a husky lot and are recognized as dangerous contenders. But France struck the note of friendly rivalry. The sportsmen turned out in the finest of cordiality and admiration.

Perhaps there was a recollection of a recent soccer match in which a rowdy element offered an unrepresentative example of French sportsmanship. Perhaps the Parisians wanted to make amends for that incident. They succeeded. The United States had judged the earlier incident right, but the recollection Wednesday will make "all right" a little righter.

Sportsmen have not forgotten that a scattering few poor sports once hissed Criqui, whom the majority acclaimed as a gentleman and fighter.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

BY CLYDE ROBERTS BARTON

One of the most interesting places in the world is the city of New York. It is a city of many wonders, and it is a city of many adventures. It is a city of many secrets, and it is a city of many mysteries. It is a city of many wonders, and it is a city of many adventures.

You went in by crawling through a barrel and when you got in the middle of it, it began to spin around like a top, upsetting you and rolling you over and over like a dice in a dice box.

When finally you got inside there was a sign which said "The Puzzle Patch." It looked as easy as pie when you went in. But it wasn't so easy, as the fly found out when he got caught in the spider-web.

For the passages twisted and turned this way and that and you always met yourself coming back. You were lucky if you got out in half an hour.

And then there were the funny mirrors that made you fat or made you lean or made you lumpy or bow-legged or even turned you upside down.

Now fat, dignified Mrs. Woodchuck said that never, never, never would she go to Happy Go Lucky Park again after Nick took her picture and got Mrs. Bunny's ears in it by mistake.

But one day Mister Woodchuck and the children coaxed and coaxed her until she said finally, "All right, go then. But remember—no nonsense."

Mister Woodchuck stopped in front of the fun house. "This looks pretty good. Let's go in," he said. "Looks silly," said Mrs. Woodchuck in a resigned voice. "But I'm in for it now. Go on if you want to."

So with whoops of delight the little Woodchuck boys and fat Mrs. Woodchuck went in and got rolled around in the barrel and thought it was fine fun.

"I'll do nothing of the sort," said Mrs. Woodchuck when they coaxed her to come along.

"There's another door," said Nancy. "Go in that way."

And the first thing you know wasn't Mrs. Woodchuck lost in "The Puzzle Patch."

And get out she couldn't. She wandered around and around and finally shouted, "Help! And Nancy had to go in and help her. Then came the mirrors. And the first one made you look like a wash-tub. Mrs. Woodchuck was fat enough, dear friends, and she shrieked when she saw herself. "Lands alive!" Take me away," she cried.

"Come on and try this one, Ma," shouted Wobbly. "It will make you think."

"I'll do nothing of the sort," snapped Mrs. Woodchuck, getting crosser and crosser. "I've no notion of being made a goose of any more."

"Then come on over here," called Mister Woodchuck, who was standing on a little bridge.

So panting indignantly, Mrs. Woodchuck followed.

But no sooner had she reached the middle of the bridge than it folded up with her and then instantly set itself right again, for it was a trick bridge.

"Take me home! Take me home!" wailed poor Mrs. Woodchuck. "This is a terrible place."

"Why you haven't seen half, Mom," said Wobbly, who was having a gorgeous time.

LOOKS BEST AT A DISTANCE

By Albert Apple

England gets ready to celebrate, in 1932, the 800th anniversary of the first use of forks by the British. Before then, they ate with their fingers.

Three centuries seem long ago. It is. But in 1632 when some unknown English progressive brought the first fork over from France, "the good old days" were at their best.

Shakespeare had been dead 16 years. The Immortal Bard never used a fork. He never even saw one. It must have been a sight to watch people eat in those "good old days."

Sewage systems were not in use in the "good old days." Refuse and dishwater were tossed into the gutters. Small wonder, plagues made people die like flies.

No one had running water for kitchen and bath. Carrying water in buckets a long distance or buying it from water carts—these are not attractive. People bathed so seldom that they had to invent high-power perfumes in order to get within speaking distance of each other without suspecting that a regiment of skunks was at large.

It was an age of discomforts and inconveniences. No labor-saving devices had been invented for homes. Women worked themselves into their graves prematurely.

Ignorance and medical superstition were frightful. Morals several centuries ago were so lax that, by comparison, the jazz tendency of our generation is tame.

Crime was far more prevalent than now. No one could take a short stagecoach trip between towns safely without carrying a brace of pistols. Men were imprisoned for debt.

The "good old days" have been painted in romantic colors by fiction writers. That's why they seem attractive to people today. But if you could turn the clock back a few hundred years and live the life of those times, you'd buy a return ticket promptly.

A fiction writer makes an old-time dungeon alluring, romantic, adventurous. Truth is, the dungeon was damp, cold, dark, infested with rats, reeking with lice. Guards were brutal. Justice was slow. Penalties were severe. Food was mainly mouldy old bread and water.

Romance? Good old days? It's a joke! Fine from a distance. The good old days are NOW.

BABE RUTH NEW LEADER IN HITTING RACE

Bambino Crashes Through to The Top of American League Batsmen

KELLY A SENSATION

Chicago, July 19. (By the A. P.)—Babe Ruth, who, in 1921, gave the baseball world something to talk about when he slammed out 59 home runs, today has a right to stick his huge chest out just a bit farther. The Bambino has crashed into the batting leadership of the American League with an average of .384, leaving "Big Boy" Felt of the White Sox, the leader a week ago, in second place with .369.

Ruth, in his climb to the top, gathered seventeen hits in his last nine games, four of which were homers. This gives him a total of 108 hits thus far this season and a string of 26 homers, the high mark of the major leagues. The figures are based on games including those of Wednesday.

Coslin of Washington, elevated himself to third place with an average of .353, followed by Ty Cobb with .349. Jamieson of Cleveland slipped into place with .347. Maurice Archdeacon, outfield star with the White Sox, is batting .330, but has only participated in 42 games. Eddie Collins of Chicago continues to blaze the way for the base stealers, adding three for a total of 24, a safe margin over his rivals. Other leading batters:

Sheely, Chicago .338; Heilmann, Detroit .336; Jacobson, St. Louis .332; Mostil, Chicago .332; J. Sewell, Cleveland .330; Speaker, Cleveland .329; Meusel, New York .328; Collins, Chicago .326; Judge, Washington .325.

Kelly Week's Sensation
George Kelly, first baseman with the New York Giants was the week's sensation in the National League. He made seven home runs in six consecutive days, which is a new major league record, and now has fourteen homers to his credit. Despite his hard hitting, however, he moved up the ladder only a few points in percentage, being topped by his teammate, Snyder, who is in third place, with an average of .364. Kelly's mark is .360.

Rogers Hornsby of St. Louis is still above the 400 mark, his average being .401 giving him a comfortable lead. His closest rival is Zack Wheat of Brooklyn, who is second with .375.

Jack Fournier, a teammate of Wheat's in his attempt to overtake Ruth for the home run honors, pounded out four circuit drives running his string to twenty-one.

Max Carey of the Pirates cut loose on the base lines and as a result ran his total of stolen bases to 23, giving him a substantial lead. Other leading batters:

Young, New York .352; Fournier, Brooklyn .350; Roush, Cincinnati .345; Bressler, Cincinnati .342; Griggsby, Chicago .333; Frisch, New York .329; Cunningham, Boston .320.

3-Cornered Race
The three cornered race for batting honors in the American Association involving Dessen and Neun, the St. Paul stars, and Bunny Brief of Kansas City, has practically overshadowed everything in the league.

Dessen, entrenched in third place, suddenly advanced over the breast works to the top with an average of .393. His margin, however, is only one point better than that of Brief, while Neun, the other Saint, is pounding away at a .391 clip.

Neun is far in advance of the base stealers with a total of 31 thefts. Reb Russell of Columbus is leading the home run hitters with 14. Brief and Earl Smith of Minneapolis and Elmer Smith of Louisville have gone into a triple tie for second place honors with 12 each. Christensen of St. Paul is leading the run getters with 97.

Other leading hitters: Earl Smith, Minneapolis .370; Christenbury, Indianapolis .347; Allen, Indianapolis .343; Russell, Columbus .342; M. Shannon, Louisville .341; Brooks, Columbus .338; Tyson, Louisville .332.

Freak Schedules Hard On Fans In Four Cities

New York, July 19.—The present race in the American League promises to be one of the most thrilling ever staged.

With the race half over, seven clubs are in the running, the Philadelphia Athletics alone appear out-classed.

In the face of this great race, the schedule of the 1924 campaign in the American League is one of the most unusual ever drawn up. It is a freak schedule that doesn't fit in very well with the great race. Its peculiarity lies in the fact that with the season half over, a number of clubs have completed their list of games with each other. For instance:

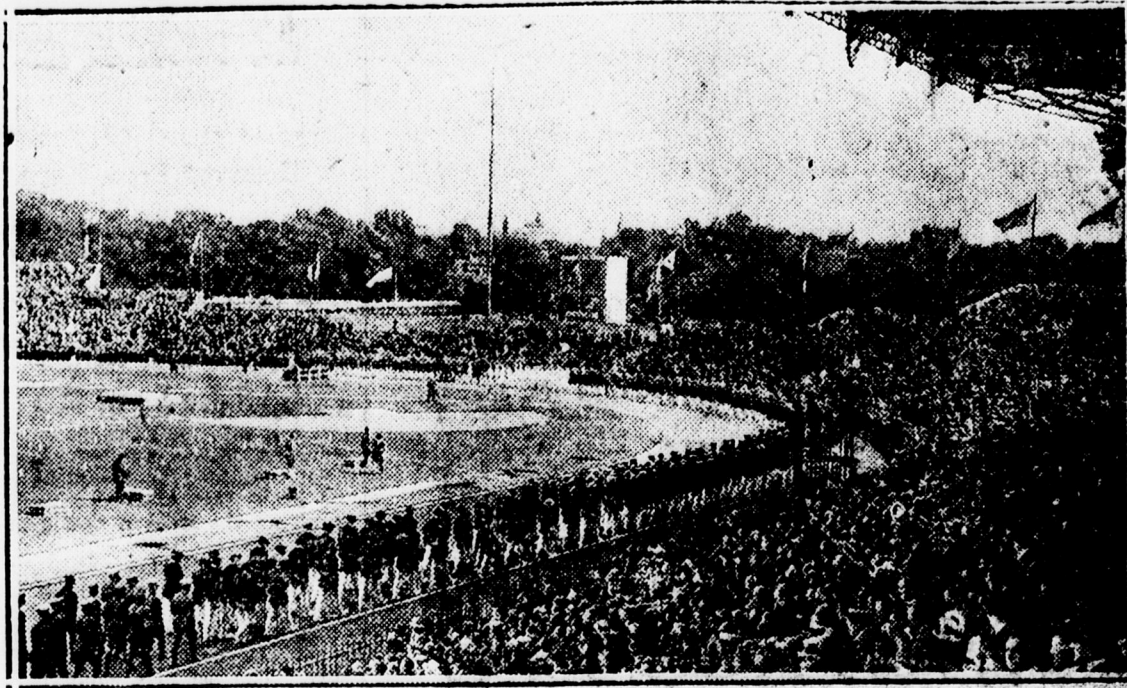

On July 6 Washington completed its home schedule of 11 games with New York.

On that date the Washington fans saw the Yankees for the last time. Incidentally Washington has already played eight of its 11 games at New York.

At this writing the Yankees and Nationals are strong pennant contenders, yet only three of the 22 games scheduled between the clubs remain unplayed.

That is unfortunate because the fans in both cities would flock to any series between the two clubs. Detroit and Cleveland are great

Opening of the 1924 Olympic Games

Here is the opening of the Olympic games at Colombes Stadium, Paris. Athletes of all nations participated in the parade preceding the preliminary events. The United States, needless to say, easily landed first place, with Finland finishing second.

Both are in the running for the American League pennant yet the fans of these two cities have but little to enthuse over as far as seeing these two clubs oppose each other.

On July 7 Detroit finished its schedule of 11 games in Cleveland. While Cleveland has only three more games to play in Detroit early in September.

Thus four of the contending teams, natural rivals, have practically finished their season schedule with each other. This is to be regretted in a race that promises so many thrills before the finish.

The 1924 schedule is certainly a freak one, far from befitting the close race.

HE'S "BABY" OF OLYMPIC TEAM

AGNEW BURLE

By NEA Service
Toronto, July 18.—Only 17 years of age, Agnew Burle, winner of the featherweight class in the Olympic tournament, is probably the youngest boxer competing in the Paris athletic carnival.

Like Young Stribling of America, Burle is a product of the stage and began boxing at the early and undoubtedly tender age of five, his older brother furnishing the opposition in bouts staged before the footlights.

His brother Alec, incidentally, is now a professional and is esteemed as the leading flyweight of the Dominion.

Billy Evans Says

Baseball is a survival of the fittest. No sport puts an athlete to so great a test over a long period. This is particularly true of the major leagues, where is assembled the very cream of the baseball talent of the world.

Woe be to the big leaguer who has a weakness, whether it be at the bat, in the field, or if a pitcher, some faulty error in his delivery.

In the college football the scouts play a leading part in the grid iron sport.

The coaches teach the fundamentals, dwell on the strategy of the game, prepare the athletes for the actual play, but it is up to the scouts to provide the dope on the opposition.

In professional baseball, each manager is a scout, and his players are his assistants on the board of strategy.

Woe be to the big leaguer with a weakness. Unless able to correct it, the flaw in his makeup often proves his undoing.

I could name a half dozen pitchers of major league class who were literally bunted out of the league. They simply couldn't handle bunted balls.

Others fail because they are unable to hold the runners closely to the bases.

A batsman with a fault may be prepared to have all pitchers play up to it.

Last fall Connie Mack paid a fancy figure for Paul Strand. He had led the Pacific Coast League in batting, making the seemingly impossible total of 325 hits in 194 games.

Mack was sure Strand would give his club a batting punch. Figures made it seem that Mack had reached a perfectly correct deduction.

The pitching stars of the big show make a careful study of their batters. Special attention is given the new men.

Shortly after the opening of the American League season a flaw was discovered in Strand's batting style. Soon it became league gossip, the property of all the pitchers. Strand suffered. The handicap was too great. He is back in the minors.

It may not seem sportsmanlike, but it doesn't take the entire league long via the gossip route, to get all the dope on a player with a glaring fault.

I see where the Boston team, by running wild on the bases the other day, beat Dazzy Vance of Brooklyn, even though he struck out nine men.

The Boston players are quoted as saying that Vance has a certain hitch in his delivery that tips the runner as to when he intends pitching the ball, a marked advantage to the runner.

If this be true, it will make it a little harder for Vance to win. However, at present he is showing the way to most of the National League pitchers, despite the alleged handicap.

There are certain American League pitchers, ranked stars, who let runners get a big lead. This is a serious fault that requires great natural ability to offset.

A pitcher with a fielding weakness is at a decided physical disadvantage. He also works under a great mental handicap, constantly believing that each batter that faces him intends to bunt.

Allan Sothoron, a pitcher of great ability, was practically bunted from the American League. Inability to field kept him from being a star.

Baseball is sure a survival of the fittest.

The Nut Cracker

Mike McGuire is getting ready to fight again. And just when we were beginning to enjoy the summer, too!

Speaking of bitter-enders, there is Mr. Mack and his unwavering devotion for eighth place.

The cables announce that Mary Garden is down to 116 pounds. . . . And almost any day now we expect to hear that she has challenged Pancho Villa.

Despite the fine work of the Finns in the Olympic races, the running championship still belongs to America.

Jim Jeffries is teaching his young fighter to crouch, and Straight Dope Benny thinks the idea is fine. "He won't have so far to fall that way," explains the noted broadcaster.

A millionaire is the champion wrestler of Vienna. . . . It is clearly up to some smart American to take his roll.

Brooklyn has one of the strongest pitching staffs in the big league. . . . His name is Arthur Vance.

It is said that Carpenter has more color than any fighter in the ring. We've always suspected he used rouge.

Usually a fanning bee is interesting, but not when you are fanning against Walter Johnson.

Probably it was just as well we didn't send a political team to the Olympics. . . . The mud-slinging championship isn't important, anyway.

Pittsburgh Lands Star Outfielder In Hazen Cuyler

Pittsburgh, July 19.—In Hazen Cuyler, fleet outfielder, the Pirates appear to have picked up one of the best all-around prospects to come into the National League in seasons.

Cuyler joined Pittsburgh late in 1923, coming from Nashville, in the Southern Association. Cuyler was one of the big noises in that circuit. In 149 games he hit .340, getting 195 safeties in 574 times at bat. He had a total base record of 295, which included 39 doubles, 17 triples and 9 home runs. He was second high in both doubles and triples.

Cuyler led the league in stolen bases with 68, being a good distance out in front in this respect. Among the regulars he stood third in the batting averages. He also had 35 assists in the outfield, 11 more than his nearest rival.

Since coming to the Pirates he has made himself solid with the fans, who like his aggressiveness, headsup baseball and natural ability. Anyone capable of breaking into the Pittsburgh outfield, composed of Carey, Bigbee and Barnhart, must have something. And that's what Cuyler did. In many games this season he has been used in place of Barnhart.

EHMKE LEADS PITCHERS

With half of the season over, Howard Ehmke of Boston, leads the major league pitchers with the most victories, 13. Others close up are Thurston of the White Sox and Vance of Brooklyn with 12. Grimes of Brooklyn with 11 and Hoyt of New York, Johnson of Washington and Kremer of Pittsburgh tied at 10.

DETROIT IN ANOTHER GAIN

Moves Into Second Place Tie
With Washington

Chicago, July 19.—Detroit climbed into a second place tie with Washington yesterday. The Tigers beat Boston, 4 to 3, in a tight game, which was saved by a remarkable catch by outfielder Manush. Washington was nosed out by St. Louis, 7 to 6, when Jacobson drove in three runs in the ninth with a triple.

New York and Cleveland divided a double header, Cleveland taking the first 9 to 2 and New York the second 7 to 2. Philadelphia beat Chicago 4 to 2. Magnum, recently obtained from Minneapolis, hurled for Chicago.

In the Nationals, Rixey of Cincinnati completed his 31st inning without being scored on, when Reds beat Brooklyn 4 to 0. Rixey allowed three singles and did not walk a batter. Not a Brooklyn man reached second.

Pittsburgh beat New York, 9 to 2. St. Louis easily beat Boston, 10 to 4, while Chicago defeated Philadelphia 2 to 1.

PINCH SWATTERS TAKE PLACES OF LEADING HITTERS

Detroit, July 19.—It is an unusual spectacle to see a champion batsman taken out for a pinch hitter, yet it has happened twice in the American League this year. Both times in this city.

Harry Heilmann led the American League in 1921 and after losing the title to Sisler in 1922 regained the honors last season.

Sisler, in 1922, the year he led the American League, was voted the most valuable player in that organization.

American League pitchers will tell you they fear no hitter in the league more than Heilmann or Sisler.

Despite this, Sisler removed himself to let a pinch hitter bat for him. Recently Manager Cobb removed Heilmann for a substitute batter.

It so happened that both Sisler and Heilmann were in the throes of a protracted slump at the time.

PECK HAVING BIG YEAR

Roger Peckinpah of Washington on his great play this year is probably the most valuable shortstop in the American League. His brilliant defensive play has been one of the greatest contributing factors to the sensational showing of the Nationals.

Peckinpah is covering more ground than he ever did, which is saying a great deal.

BOILS KEPT HIM OUT

Johnny Farrell's failure to crash into the British open golf championship is attributed to a flock of boils which cropped out on his hands. It was almost impossible for Farrell to hold a club.

VILLA SMART BOXER

Bud Taylor, mid-western bantamweight, says Pancho Villa, flyweight champion, is the smartest boxer he ever faced. "Villa is always trying to outfigure you and usually he does," says Taylor.

NEW POULTRY METHOD TRIED

Fargo, July 19.—Adolph Zimmerman of the Zimmerman Cattle company of Fargo, has started a new North Dakota industry. The industry is that of finishing poultry through a method of forced feeding for a given length of time.

The new system which Mr. Zimmerman is introducing, will take poultry culls through a process of forced feeding for 16 days, bring them up to compare with No. 1 grade and dry pick them and send them to market.

Mr. Zimmerman is remodeling a building at 10 Third St. N., which will be used. The building is 65 by 75 feet and is a two-story structure.

Mr. Zimmerman will leave Monday for Loushansen, Bressa, France,

In the Wake of a Kansas "Twister"

Here are a few of the things a tornado did to Augusta, Kas. Above can be seen the wreckage of four buildings, all piled together. On top of the mass of timber, brick, stone and iron is the debris of the Catholic church, a stone structure. At the right of the pile is the new high school building, completed only recently, with part of its roof gone and windows broken. A dozen injured and the body of a woman were found at this spot. Below is a view of the devastation along State street, principal business thoroughfare. A national guardsman is seen patrolling the district.

NO, GIRLS, YOU CAN'T HAVE 'EM

To study this new method in preparing poultry for market, this is said to be the largest district in the world finishing poultry for export, and Mr. Zimmerman will spend three months there.

Through this system, there will be no dealings with commission houses, Mr. Zimmerman said as he will deal direct with the retailers.

America Leads In Poultry Raising

London, July 19. (A. P.)—In proposing the health of the American and Canadian delegates to the world poultry congress recently held in Barcelona, who were entertained by the British government here, Minister of Agriculture Noel Buxton admitted America and Canada were ahead of Great Britain in poultry culture, but he added that he was proud of the fact that Great Britain's breeding stock was in demand in other lands.

Britain, he said, had not yet developed her poultry industry sufficiently to meet her own demands, but she supplied the market for other people.

The British government, the speaker concluded, was very grateful to America for the courtesy shown to their representative, A. P. Francis, on the occasion of his visit to the United States last year for research work in poultry culture.

Wool production in the United States last year was about 266,000,000 pounds.

Lamb crop in Wyoming this year is expected to be about 10 per cent above that of last year.

White egrets are now in their full plumage, but they will no longer adorn military hats. The birds were fast becoming exterminated when protective laws were passed by all countries. This egret in the London Zoo is an unusually fine specimen.

Kiddies' Evening Story

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

Horse Bot Flies

"We have a curious place for the home nest," said Mrs. Horse Bot Fly. "Sometimes you get at a horse so you do him great harm," said Billie Brownie. "Doesn't that seem to be unfair?" "And in any case," he added, "you do all the harm you can without seeming to mind it at all."

"Then I should say you know about me," said Mrs. Horse Bot Fly. "I have heard talk about you," said Billie Brownie. "But I wanted to hear from you, yourself, if the things I have heard about you are really true."

"I wanted to make sure, for I couldn't believe you would really be so mean," Mrs. Horse Bot Fly—we will call her Mrs. Horse Bot Fly for short—did not seem to mind what Billie Brownie had said. Instead she looked rather pleased.

"Probably what you have heard is true," she said. "But I would like to hear from your own lips, as it were, just what it is that you do," said Billie Brownie.

"I was going to tell you in the first place," said Mrs. Horse Bot Fly, "but then you seemed to know all about it, so I didn't think it was necessary."

"As you would like to know, anyway, I will tell you."

"I told you in the first place that we have a curious place for the home nest."

"Most creatures build nests or holes for their homes, or they spin webs, or they go in for house-making in one way or another."

"I'm not domestic that way. I don't care about housekeeping."

"To my mind it is a nuisance. A nuisance, Billie Brownie."

"Why should I bother about picking out a place for my home and then work hard carrying things to it to make it comfortable?"

"I don't care about a home such as that. And neither do the children."

"Of course I pick out a home, but I don't build my nest and I don't fuss about it. I just let the house-keeping take care of itself."

"You see, I lay about four hundred or so eggs at a time. A large family, you will say. And I say so, too."

"Keep house for all of them? I should say not. I couldn't be bothered."

"Well, I pick out a horse and I fasten these eggs to the horse's hairs."

"I fasten them upon the legs and the shoulders of the horse and then the eggs are hatched out by the horse."

"The horse really helps me. So you see I can be mean and yet have good results."

"The horse tries to lick those eggs off the little yellow eggs which will later be brown, hairy, beetle-like appearing flies."

"In trying to lick off these eggs the horse gives the eggs the exercise and the dampness which they need to hatch out properly."

"Of course these eggs greatly annoy the horse. But that does not concern me."

"I usually lay all my eggs upon one horse too. Is this what you have heard of me?"

"Yes," said Billie Brownie, "and a meaner creature I've seldom met."

"I never did think much of flies anyway, but you are about as dreadfully as one could be met."

"I don't want to talk to you any more, though I do wish you would do differently."

"It is useless to try to improve me," said Mrs. Horse Bot Fly with a mean grin on her little face. (© 1924 Western Newspaper Union)

BAD MEDICINE FOR HIS FOES

—DR. O. C. WILLING

Leading all the amateurs in the recent Pacific northwest championship, Dr. O. C. Willing of Portland, Ore., is decidedly a bad medicine for the rest of the competing field. Last year the good doctor was runner up in the Oregon state championship. He is remembered nationally for his fine play with the American cup team abroad last year.

Millions Lost By Hog Cholera

Hog cholera caused a loss of more than $27,000,000 to the swine industry of the United States during the year ended April 30, 1921, according to a recent compilation by the United States Department of Agriculture. More than half of the total loss occurred in the corn belt states, where hogs are especially numerous. Eighty per cent of losses from all causes are due to this dread disease. Most of this loss can be prevented by proper sanitation and the preventive serum treatment. United States now imports at least twice as much wool as the average import for 1900 to 1904.

Kiddies' Evening Story

Horse Bot Flies

"We have a curious place for the home nest," said Mrs. Horse Bot Fly.

"Sometimes you get at a horse so you do him great harm," said Billie Brownie. "Doesn't that seem to be unfair?"

"And in any case," he added, "you do all the harm you can without seeming to mind it at all."

"Then I should say you know about me," said Mrs. Horse Bot Fly.

"I have heard talk about you," said Billie Brownie. "But I wanted to hear from you, yourself, if the things I have heard about you are really true."

"I wanted to make sure, for I couldn't believe you would really be so mean."

Mrs. Horse Bot Fly—we will call her Mrs. Horse Bot Fly for short—did not seem to mind what Billie Brownie had said.

Instead she looked rather pleased.

"Probably what you have heard is true," she said.

"But I would like to hear from your own lips, as it were, just what it is that you do," said Billie Brownie.

"I was going to tell you in the first place," said Mrs. Horse Bot Fly, "but then you seemed to know all about it, so I didn't think it was necessary."

"As you would like to know, anyway, I will tell you."

"I told you in the first place that we have a curious place for the home nest."

"Most creatures build nests or holes for their homes, or they spin webs, or they go in for house-making in one way or another."

"I'm not sure about that way. I don't care about housekeeping."

"To my mind it is a nuisance. A nuisance, Billie Brownie."

"Why should I bother about picking out a place for my home and then work hard carrying things to it to make it comfortable?"

"I don't care about a home such as that. And neither do the children."

"Of course I pick out a home, but I don't build my nest and I don't fuss about it. I just let the house-keeping take care of itself.

"You see, I lay about four hundred or so eggs at a time. A large family, you will say. And I say so, too."

"Keep house for all of them? I should say not. I couldn't be bothered."

"Well, I pick out a horse and I fasten these eggs to the horse's hairs."

"I fasten them upon the legs and the shoulders of the horse and then the eggs are hatched out by the horse."

"The horse really helps me. So you see I can be mean and yet have good results."

"The horse tries to lick these eggs off—the little yellow eggs which will later be brown, hairy, beetle-like appearing flies."

"In trying to lick off these eggs the horse gives the eggs the exercise and the dampness which they need to hatch out properly."

"Of course these eggs greatly annoy the horse. But that does not concern me."

"I usually lay all my eggs upon one horse, too. Is this what you have heard of me?"

"Yes," said Billie Brownie, "and a meaner creature I've seldom met."

"I never did think much of flies anyway, but you talk about as dreadful a one as could be met."

"I don't want to talk to you any more, though I do wish you would do differently."

"It is useless to try to improve me," said Mrs. Horse Bot Fly with a mean grin on her ugly little face. (© 1924 Western Newspaper Union.)

AGNEW BURLEY

By NEA Service
Toronto, July 18.—Only 17 years of age, Agnew Burley, winner of the featherweight class in the Olympic tournament, is probably the youngest boxer competing in the Paris athletic carnival.

Like Young Stribling of America, Burley is a product of the stage and began boxing at the early and undoubtedly tender age of five, his older brother furnishing the opposition in bouts staged before the footlights.

His brother Alec, incidentally, is now a professional and is esteemed as the leading flyweight of the Dominion.

DETROIT IN ANOTHER GAIN

Moves Into Second Place Tie With Washington

Chicago, July 19.—Detroit climbed into a second place tie with Washington yesterday. The Tigers beat Boston, 4 to 3, in a tight game, which was saved by a remarkable catch by outfielder Manush. Washington was noed out by St. Louis, 7 to 6, when Jacobson drove in three runs in the ninth with a triple.

New York and Cleveland divided a double header, Cleveland taking the first 9 to 2 and New York the second 7 to 2. Philadelphia beat Chicago 4 to 2. Magnum, recently obtained from Minneapolis, hurled for Chicago.

In the Nationals, Rixey of Cincinnati completed his 31st inning without being scored on, when Reds beat Brooklyn 4 to 0. Rixey allowed three singles and did not walk a batter. Not a Brooklyn man reached second.

Pittsburgh beat New York, 9 to 2. St. Louis easily beat Boston, 10 to 4, while Chicago defeated Philadelphia 2 to 1.

NEW POULTRY METHOD TRIED

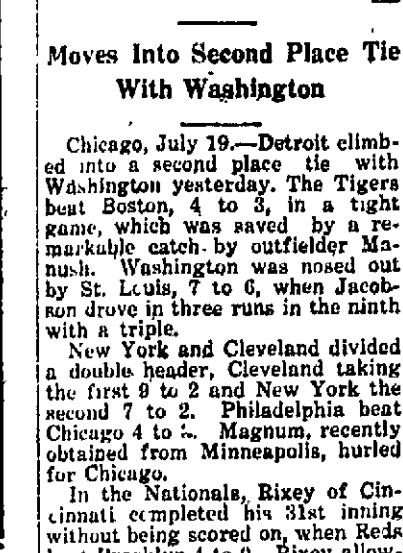

Fargo, July 19.—Adolph Zimmerman of the Zimmerman Cattle company of Fargo, has started a new North Dakota industry. The industry is that of finishing poultry through a method of forced feeding for a given length of time.

The new system which Mr. Zimmerman is introducing, will take poultry calls through a process of forced feeding for 16 days, bring them up to compare with No. 1 grade and dry pick them and send them to market.

Mr. Zimmerman is remodeling a building at 10 Third St. N., which he leased. The building is 65 by 75 feet and is a two story structure.

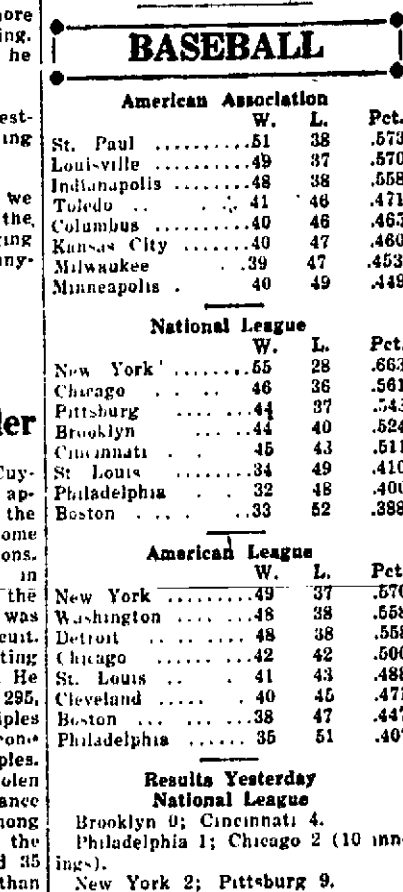

Mr. Zimmerman will leave Monday for Lonsdale, Ill., France.

In the Wake of a Kansas "Twister"

Here are a few of the things a tornado did to Augusta, Kas. Above can be seen the wreckage of four buildings, all piled together. On top of the mass of timber, brick, stone and iron is the debris of the Catholic church, a stone structure. At the right of the pile is the new high school building, completed only recently, with part of its roof gone and windows broken. A dozen injured and the body of a woman were found at this spot. Below is a view of the devastation along State street, principal business thoroughfare. A national guardsman is seen patrolling the district.

NO, GIRLS, YOU CAN'T HAVE 'EM

White egrets are now in their full plumage, but they will no longer adorn military hats. The birds were fast becoming exterminated when protective laws were passed by all countries. This egret in the London Zoo is an unusually fine specimen.

The pledge of the printed word

Friendships in ancient days were formed by pledges of blood. Medieval knights won mutual aid by pledges of the sword. But modern business forms friends in every corner of the world through the pledge of the printed word.

Advertisements are pledges made especially for you . . . pledges that advertised goods you buy are exactly as claimed.

When you buy an advertised phonograph, you buy one of established workmanship and tone. It has been tested by thousands before you. Its dealers, sure of its worth, invite the testing of millions more.

What is not advertised may be worth buying. What is, must be!

Read the advertisements to know which goods are advertised.

AN ADVERTISER'S PLEDGE CAN BE REDEEMED ONLY BY YOUR ENTIRE SATISFACTION

NEW OVERLAND COUPE GREETED BY THE WOMEN

Unusual interest among feminine motorists has greeted Willys-Overland's announcement of its new two-passenger Overland Coupe. Not only is it a light car embodying the manifold advantages of the entire Overland line, but it combines with these a driving comfort and convenience almost incredible in a car of these dimensions.

Nowadays, with the male members of the family requiring the use of the car during the day, there is a definite need for a second car in a good many homes, a car that can be used for shopping and visiting by the women folks of the home.

The new Coupe has proved itself to be ideally adapted for this purpose. Ventilating windshield, Dura window regulators, rear window curtains are little touches that appeal to feminine taste.

Coupled with these features is the ease of parking, and the unusual riding comfort due to the 130-inch spring base. Its ease of handling in congested traffic areas because of the exceptionally large steering spindles and bearings are decided factors in this new car intended for feminine use.

The new Coupe is equipped with doors that are over 31 inches wide, thus providing easy entrance. The body of exceptionally heavy metal, is sturdily reinforced. Unusual pains are taken with the painting operations, fourteen coats being applied to give the car its lasting durable finish.

The interior of the body is finished in durable, long grain Spanish leather upholstery. The seat cushion is over 45 inches wide, being ample to accommodate three medium-sized people. There are 15 inches between steering wheel and cushion, rendering it convenient for the car to be entered easily from either side.

A roomy rear deck provides ample space for packages, which is an additional convenience for milady's shopping. Its hinged cover is provided with a lock and is protected against dust and leaks.

MILLION FORDS ARE SOLD IN SIX MONTHS

Sales reports from the 34 American branches of the Ford Motor Company show that over a million Ford cars and trucks were sold at retail during the first six months of 1924. The actual figure is 1,036,978, which exceeds the total retail sales for the same period in 1923 by 133,095—an average gain of 22.182 sales per month.

A comparison between Ford sales in 1924 and 1923 not only indicates a remarkable increase in the country's buying power, but also shows that this growth continues month by month. In every instance the monthly sales in 1924 have shown a substantial increase over the corresponding month in 1923. In June they reached 170,747 which was approximately 10,000 ahead of June sales in the preceding year.

These figures are for retail sales in the United States alone and do not take into consideration the sales made by foreign Ford branches and associated companies, the majority of which assemble cars from American made parts.

Perhaps the most encouraging sign of the times lies in the fact that these sales have been spread very evenly throughout the country and indicate a general prosperity that is not confined to any particular section.

Invisible Values

Now You Can SEE What Makes The Hupmobile So Much Better

Those "invisible costs," that have so much to do with the proverbially solid and substantial qualities of every Hupmobile, are now made visible for you.

Step into our salesroom and ask to see the Parts Display.

There are tickets on these parts that tell you in black type what they are for, how they are made and what they are made of.

The same ticket, in red type, tells you a similar story about similar parts in other cars not so carefully and thoroughly made.

Safety: Hupmobile, by means of fine materials and determinative tests, provides safety throughout the chassis. The parts shown here—steering knuckle, steering arm, and front axle—are of the finest material that can be used. All are drop forged steel, double heat-treated, and are unusually heavy. In this group, each individual part for each individual car must pass the Brinell test, within close limits, for proper hardness of material and bears the Brinell hardness mark.

If these other cars could match the Hupmobile in excellence and reliability of performance, in durability and economy of upkeep—well, you might then be justified in laying your money down on the "red."

But wisdom says black is the safe and sane color when it comes to investing hard-earned money in an automobile.

It takes quality to produce quality results. See the Hupmobile Parts Display at our salesroom.

The Chart Shows How Willys-Knights beat Poppet Valves

More Power!

In official tests by unbiased engineers, the famous Willys-Knight sleeve-valve engine has literally run away from poppet-valve engines in power—acceleration—flexibility—smoothness—and quietness.

The above chart shows the result of tests between a Willys-Knight sleeve-valve engine and a poppet-valve six of equal horsepower rating. In the words of the engineer who made the test—

"You will see by the chart that at 500 revolutions per minute the Knight engine developed two horsepower more than the poppet-valve. And as the engine speed was increased this superiority of the Knight engine became even more apparent."

Knight Gains Power!

"The poppet-valve engine began to lose power steadily after a speed of 1500 revolutions was reached. At this point the sleeve-valve motor had not only increased its power lead from an initial superiority of two horsepower to twenty-three, but its power curve was steadily rising—showed no sign of falling off!"

The best poppet-valve engine built is bound to lose power and get noisier the longer it is driven—WHEREAS the Willys-Knight sleeve-valve engine grows more powerful, quieter—literally improves with use!

It is a common thing for Willys-Knight owners to get 50,000 miles and more before spending one cent on engine repairs.

And the Knight means absolute freedom from valve-grinding, carbon cleaning and the other woes common to all poppet-valve engines.

We doubt if there is any motor car on earth that can run as far as Willys-Knight without replenishing the water supply. Properly adjusted and properly lubricated—overheating is unknown in a Willys-Knight.

A Favorite with Women

Women all agree that the Willys-Knight is the easiest of all cars to steer and drive—and the beauty of its coachwork wins instant admiration from all who love fine things.

When you see the Knight—and ride in it—and know its dependability—you readily understand why Willys-Knight sales leaped ahead 238% last year.

A few of the many reasons why it pays to deal with F. M. R. Electric Service:

Free battery water and inspection at the curb.
Free service batteries when your battery needs charging or repairs.

Free delivery of service batteries in exchange for your battery to be charged or repaired.

Think of the saving—with no rent to pay while your battery is being taken care of—this is especially appreciated when you own a Radio.

No doubt it never occurred to you that it is cheaper to rent a battery than own one, because it was never possible under the old rental conditions. But under our plan it is cheaper—with no worries as to the length of a battery guarantee—no need of repairs—no expense for winter storage, which generally amounts to five or six dollars.

MAKE IT A POINT TO SEE THE F. M. R. ELECTRIC SERVICE FIRST WHEN YOU NEED ANOTHER BATTERY AND YOU WON'T REGRET IT.

Gossip vs. Facts

During the three years we have been selling Chevrolet automobiles, some of our friends in Bismarck who also market automobiles, have labored strenuously to create the impression that Chevrolet was having much rear end trouble. We are going to squash this gossip with a few simple facts.

We began selling the Chevrolet in 1921 when the factory discarded the old straight tooth ring gear and brought out the new axle using the spiral bevel gear. The old type had not proven strong enough to handle the powerful valve in head motor. During the three years of our contract we have sold Chevrolet parts from our large Bismarck stock into a part of three states, which territory purchased close to two thousand Chevrolets during the same period. Today our parts room stock card shows that we have sold only 68 CHEVROLET SPIRAL RING GEARS IN THREE YEARS, or about one gear to every twenty-eight cars. If all of these gears had been sold right in the small territory included in our personal Chevrolet contract where we sell all of the parts used, it would be a ratio of one ring to every seven cars. The above statement as to rear axle breakage proves conclusively that Chevrolet has even less than average breakage as compared to other cars. We will be glad to have our friends ask to see our parts room inventory cards at any time to see just what parts are being sold. We are proud of the record made by the Chevrolet car in this respect especially.

Excluding Ford, the daily Chevrolet factory production is many times greater than any other automobile. The public likes the Chevrolet and buys in quantity everywhere.
